The Attorney for the Defendant objects to the 2.d 3.d 4th & 5th Interrogatories on the part of the Complainant as be Leading

The Attorney for the Defendant represents that the Applications made by the Defendants Attorney as they ought to have been made between the time of publication passing and the time the Cause is ordered down for hearing — But that has been withheld by the practice of the Court to receive objections to the Interrogatories at the time of the hearing of the Cause The Court are of opinion that the Attorney for the Complainant should be allowed to make them at the time, But as it will be much more regular that they should be made between the time of passing publication and the following time for hearing, It is therefore ordered on future days all objections to Interrogatories shall be delivered in in Writing at the time Publication of passing And the following days thereafter to be heard, And for that purpose that the Attorneys do take out a Copy of the Interrogatories It is hereby ordered that this order shall not relate to a Cause as already set down for hearing —

As the Defendant have not denied the Signatures to the Receipt in the annexed Book for Pagodas 150, but only says that he cannot admit it as a proper Voucher being not proved to be the Defendants Signatures, and as the Evidence examined to this point only depose that they are unacquainted with the Plaintiffs writing, not that they are in doubt about it, Mr Russell is of Opinion that this Charge ought to stand good, and therefore decrees to the Judgment given in this Particular more especially as had it been a false Signature the Defendant who must be supposed to be the best Judge of his own Hand Writing, would not only have Categorically alledged it but have endeavoured to prove it to be so, by producing proper Signatures for Comparison

The Court observing by the deposition of Murrapah on the part of the defendant, it appears that the defendant said to Moodu "dont be Afraid we have "given up your Bond to Vineatachilla Pillai and Nimar, and they have given a "fresh one for the same Sum" Which is an Impropriety, as it no where appears that Moodu was Concerned in any Bond — The said Murrapah being in Court is duely sworn and the Interrogatory being again put to him — He declares that it was Moodu who said to the defendant "dont be Afraid we have given up "your Bond to Pushpanada Nynar and Vineatachilla Pillai and they have "given up a fresh one for the said Sum — The Court being of Opinion that Moodu in Answer to the 8th Interrogatory put to him by the defendant is by no means Particular, as Nearly declares in General terms, that the Note menhoned in the said Interrogatory was never discharged without mentioning whether it was not discharged in whole or in part, which He is Particularly Interrogated and the whole of his Deposition both on the part of the Complainant and defendant appearing to be very vague and Contradicted by several other Witnesses, He is now called upon and being duely sworn, He is again Examined on the Interrogatories put to him before the Examiner, and his Deposition to the 3 and 8th Interrogatory on the part of the Complainant is found to Agree with that taken before the Examiner, He is then examined on the Interrogatories put to him on the part of the Defendant and his Deposition is found to Agree with that taken before the Examiner, except to the 2d Interrogatory he now positively answers that no Consideration Money was

Interrogatories on the part of the Defendant read

The Defendant having on their Answer alledged that the Translation of the Agreement annexed to the Bill of Complaint is not just as by the Agreement itself the Defendants promised to allow the Complainant other and further part of the profits that may arise on the money they had borrowed of them on Bottomry thereon at the Rate of four per Cent for every Pagoda which shall be found thereon allowed by the Translate. It is agreed that Interest ought to be allowed on any Sum they should be found to have borrowed of them. The Court Interpreter is therefore called upon to Translate the Original Agreement whereby it appears that the allowance of profit or Interest was to be allowed on such Sums as the Defendants had borrowed of the Complainant

The Court Interpreter is therefore Interrogated how the mistake or Difference could arise — He acquaints the Court that he Translated it truely to the Attorney Mr. Bishop who must have made a Mistake
