THE PLEA OF KETTY VANCATY PUTTEE OF
MADRAS DEFENDANT TO THE BILL OF COM-PLAINT OF OPPONA VENCATOMAH OF THE SAME PLACE WIDOW COMPLAINANT.

THE SAID Defendant by Protestation not confessing or acknowledging all or any part of the Matters and things in the said Bill of Complaint contain'd to be true in such Manner as they are therein and thereby Setforth and alleg'd, as to such part of the said Bill as Demands a delivery of sundry Joys Bonds Moneys etc. and all such other part of the said Bill that is not herein aftermention'd or answer'd unto this Defendant doth plead thereunto and for Plea Saith, FIRSTLY Touching the Joys Bonds Moneys etc. This Defendant Solemnly Protests. He never was possess'd of all or any part of the said Joys Bonds Moneys &c^a. as is falsely in the Complaint Setforth. SECONDLY there was never any such Meeting of the Cast nor such an award by them made as the Complainant falsely Setsforth in Her Bill of Compl^t. THIRDLY the Complainant is no ways Impower'd Lawfully to call this Defendant to Account Sopposeing the allegations against this Defendant in the Bill of Complaint were all true the Complainant being neither Heir nor Guardian to Jaggoo in the Complainant's Bill mention'd the said Compl^t. haveing in the year 1734 call'd the said Jaggoo before a Meeting of the Heads of the Cast to Demand a dividend of Her husband's Estate which the Cast awarded Her and She as is the Custom of the Cast she belongs to withdrew Herself from Her Family not being allow'd to have any further concerns therewith all which this Defendant conceives will clearly Demonstrate she could not be Guardian to the said Jaggoo and as to Her being His Heiress that's an Impossibility for the said Jaggoo has a Son now liveing and the Laws of Jaggoo's and the Complainants Cast are such that while Jaggoo's Son lives Jaggoo cannot appoint any other person his Heir or Heiress why then is this Defendant Troubled with this Litigious Law suit for if as the Compl^t. in Her Bill sets forth she's Jaggoo's Heiress (which as before Shewn cannot be) yet this Defendant humbly conceives she can have no right to Jaggoo's Estate till after Jaggoo's Decease and if so the Complainant cannot by being Heiress only be invested with Sufficient powers whereby to call this Defendant to an Account in Jaggoo's lifetime. All which matters this Defendant doth Plead in Barr and humbly prays the Judgement of this Honourable Court whether this Defendant shall make any further or other Answer to the Compl^{ts}. said Bill of Complaint and humbly prays to be hence Dismiss'd with reasonable Costs in this behalf wrongfully Sustain'd.

Attorney for the Defendant.

THE ANSWER of Govinda Chitty Merchant of Madrass Defendant to the Bill of Complaint of Sealum Moodalare of said Place.

He this Defendant saving and reserving to himself all Benefit and advantage of Exception to the Manifold Errors Incertanitys and Insufficiencys in the said Bill Contained for Answer thereunto or to so much thereof as this Defendant is advised materially Concerns him to make Answer unto He this Defendant Answereth and Saith.

FIRST that the two Bonds annex to the Complainants Bill is no Less than 23 years old by the Date thereof, and this Defendant really believes by Comparisson of Hands, that this Defendants Brother never wrote the said Bonds having seen them in Court But above all if as the Complainant says the said Bonds are really true why has not the Complainant made some Demand of those Bonds within these 15 years this Defendants Brother having been dead so long and this Defend^t. Declares he never heard of any such Demand till within these two or three months But this Defendant Declares he never received nor does he now Enjoy any part whatever of his deceased Brothers Effects nor is the House this Defendant now lives in, any part of the Deceased's Effects But the House the Complainant pretends is mortgaged to him is this Defendants house and has been this Defendants house for this Twenty years and upwards that is five years before his Brother's death at which time this Defend^t. and his late Brother had disputes about their maintenance the one being married, and the other unmarried, Upon which they was [sic] Called before the heads of their Cast who allotted this Defendant half the said House and Gave the Deceased Brother the other half which he sold directly in his life time so that this Defendant is left in present possession of no more than the half of the said House for those who bought the other Half house being neighbours adjoining directly cut off his part of the house and Ground by a party Wall which several Transactions the Complainant and his Ancient Mortgage never once appeared to make Demand But stays 15 years after the Man is dead picks up an Old Bond nobody knows how or where and then puts it in Court to get this Defendants house tho' this Defendant never received any part of the Deceased's Effects nor any Body else for the Deceased, while living had hardly enough to relieve his daily wants wherefore there is little reason to believe the Deceased left any Estate behind him, In short the Contents of these pretended Bonds shew the Mortgagor must have been but in very low Circumstances to Mortgage his House for 13 or 14 Pag^s.

But this Defendant denies that the Bonds now sued for are (this Defendant believes) the hand writing of this Defendants Brother deceased and this Defendant believes the said Bonds are Trumpt up and are false and this Defendant denies to be possessed of any part of the Deceased's Effects whereby this Defendant is in no wise liable to pay his deceased Brothers Debt on any account tho' never so true and this Defendant is ready to aver maintain and prove the same as this Honourable Court shall direct and humbly prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable Costs in this Behalf most wrongfully sustained.

HENRY DEVEIL
Attorney for the Defendant.

19TH. OCTOBER 1742.

REPLICATION of Sealum Moodalare of Madras,
Merchant, Complainant to the Answer of Govindoo of the same place, Merchant, Defendant.

THIS Replyant now and at all times hereafter saving and reserving to himself all and all manner of Benefit and advantage of Exception to the many errors and untruths of the said Answer for Replication thereunto Saith that all and singular the matters and things in this Repliants Bill contained are certain true as they and every of them are therein alledged and expressed and that the Defendants Answer to the said Bill is very untrue Imperfect and Insufficient to be replied unto and this Replyant for a Replication to the said Answer saith further.

That as to the Defendant in his Answer saying that he doth not possess any part of the Deceased Timma's Estate is absolutely false for the House he the Defendant now lives in actually was Timmas during his life time nor was the half of it ever disposed as the Defendant falsely pretends but this Replyant acknowledges that Timma sold during his life time some of the Back yard belonging to the said house but none of the house on the Contrary he the said Timma died in the said house Immediately upon his death the Defendant took possession of the said house and has remained in it ever since the Def^t. pretends he is Ignorant there was any Mortgage on his House which must be false or else the Defendant must have a very short Memory for this Replyant doth averr that the Defend^t. was present several times when this Replyant demanded (the Sums now sued for) of Timma in his life time and since the death of the said Timma this Replyant hath more than a hundred times as this Repliant verily believes demanded payment of the Defendant who Continually put this Repliant off with fair promises but never denied the Justness of this Repliants demand til about a month or two before this Repliant fyled his Bill in this Honourable Court.

In short this Replyant will prove the Mortgage Bond to be given by Timma will produce a Choultry Bill of Sale wherein the Mortgaged premisses are particularly specified and will prove that the Defendant himself more than once promised to repay this Repliant the money lent by this Repliant to Timma which this Replyant humbly hopes will be satisfactory to this Honourable Court.

All which matters and things this Replyant is ready to averr, maintain and prove and humbly prays as in and by his said Bill he has already prayed.

WILLIAM DUMBLETON
Attorney for the Replyant.

9TH NOVEMBER 1742.

The Rejoinder of Govinda to the Replycation of Sealum Moodalare Complainant.

This Defendant now and at all times hereafter, saving and reserving to himself all manner of Benefit and advantage of Exception to Incertainties and Insufficiencys of the Repliants Replycation saith that all and singular the matters and things in this Defendants said Answer are true and sufficient in the Law to be replied unto and this Defendant further saith again that he does possess no part of the Deceds Effects, and that the said House of the Deceased, was sold in the Deceased's life time, and this Defendant saith that the Complainant should have made his Claim in the deceased's life time, but instead of so doing the Complainant letts his pretended Claim be Dormant till the person is dead on whom the demand ought to be made, then the Complainant brings out some old demand of many years standing, no body can prove how it arises, or whether paid or not, a practice much used of late by some of the Inhabitants who make their daily Livelihood, to Trump old Bonds and Antient demands, that have lain asleep from Family to Family, and some perhaps discharged many years ago, and when the Complain^{ts}. think every branch of the Family is gone that was old enough to give an Account of past Transactions, then they build upon no bodys being alive or in the place to Disprove what they affirm, then some helpless Widow or some young Relique of the Family, is made a prey on, and Terrified into the payment of some money, or a new Bond to make a good debt of that, which was none at all, which practice tis hoped will be Inquired into, and Suppressed by this Honourable Court.

And this Defendant saith as in and by his Answer he hath already said and does and will Aver and maintain all and every thing and things to be true and certain in such manner and form as is therein and thereby set forth alledged and Expressed.

Attorney for the Defendant.

THE answer of Lingamah Widow of Madrass Defendant to the Bill of Complaint of Portakee Subriah Jagaswah of the same place merchant Complainant.

THE Said Defendant now and at all times hereafter saving and reserving to herself all and all manner of Benefit and advantage of Exception to the manifold Errors Imperfections, Incertainties and Untruths in the Complainants said Bill Contained for answer thereunto or unto so much thereof as she this Defendant is advised, Materially doth concern this Defendant to make answer unto, she this Defendant answereth and saith.

That she admitts her Husband to borrow of the Complainant the sum of Pagodas Eighty, Ten fanams and Ten Cash for securing the Repayment whereof he this Defendants Deceased Husband did mortgage unto the Complainant the Bill of Sale of his House; and this Defendant further says that Thirty Pagodas of the above sum has been repaid in the lifetime of this Defendants Husband as he declared in his last Moments by saying he stood Indebted to the Complainant only Principal Pagodas Fifty, Ten fanams and Ten Cash on which Interest for one year was due.

As to the Bond for five Pagodas this Defendant acknowledges her Deceased Husband did sign it, but never received any Valuable Consideration for so doing.

As to the article of Paddy this Defendant knows nothing of any such parcel as the said Complainant Charges nor does she believe the said Charges to be true, but however she is willing to put the Issue of this Cause upon the Complainants taking his Oath at Triplicane Pagoda to the truth of his Demand, which this Defendant prays he may be Compelled so to do.

All which Matters and things this Defendant is ready to aver, maintain and prove the same as this Honourable Court shall award and humbly prays to be hence dismissed with her reasonable Costs and Charges in this behalf most wrongfully sustained.

16TH. OCTOBER 1744.

THE Replycation of Portakee Subriah Jagaswah to the Answer of Lingamah of Madras Complainant.

THE SAID Replyant saving to himself all advantages of Exception to the Incertainties, Untruths and Insufficiencys of the Defendants answer for Replycation thereunto saith That all and singular the matters and things in this Repliants said Bill contained is true as is therein alledged and that the Answer of the said Defendant to the said Bill is very untrue Imperfect and Insufficient to be replied unto.

FOR this Repliant saith that the house now under Suit was first mortgaged by the Defendants husband for Pag^s. 102 he afterwards paid in part of the Bond 34. But their being other little Accounts in this Replyants Favour a Ballance was struck and there remained due to this Replyant the sum of Pag^s. 80. 10. 10. upon which the Old Bonds was Cancelled and the new Bond under Suit was Given of which no part has been paid to this Repliant or to any person by his Order knowledge or belief as to the other little Bond for Pagodas 5 it was lent after the other Bond and the Defendants husband promised it should be Included in the Mortgage.

As to the 9 Pagodas of Rice which the Defendant in her answer Erroniously calls paddy this Repliant has several Witnesses to prove it due and therefore the Defendants Request of Swearing at the Pagoda is very unreasonable and this Repliant humbly conceives if the Defendant denys what this Repliant asserts it is the Replyants Interest to prove it and that has been always held sufficient by this Honourable Court.

THE Court has some times thought proper to administer an Oath in the most solemn manner But that has been generally speaking matters of Great Importance, and the Oath always given to the Defendant and then only when the proofs have not appeared to the Courts Satisfaction.

All which Matters and Things this Replyant is ready to averr maintain and prove as this Honourable Court shall direct and humbly prays to us in and by his said Bill is already prayed.

The Joint Answer of Parmaul Moodalare and Ramah Chendru to the Bill of Complaint of Tomby Chitty of Madras Merch^t.

THESE Defendants saving and reserving to themselves all and all manner of Benefit and advantage of Exception to the manifold Errors Incertainties and Insufficiencys in the Complainants Bill contained for Answer thereunto or to so much thereof as these Defendants are advised materially concern them to make answer unto they these Defendants answereth and saith.

That they do admit the Complainant and the deceased Poncala Kisnah were partners in the Beetle and Tobacco farm, and they also admit that the Note or Obligation annext to the Complainants Bill was also given to the Intent and purpose hereafter mentioned.

After the decease of Poncala Kisnah the Complainant came to these Defendants and said that the Deceased's Estate stood Indebted to him the Complainant in the sum of 658. 24 Current of Madrass and as Security for such money the Complainant desired these Defendants would assign over to him the Complainant a power to receive and Collect in the profits Rents and Revenues of the deceaseds proportion in the Beetle and Tobacco farm of which the Deceaseds had been a principal Partner and in Consequence of which there was remaining a Stock in the said Partnership which the Complainant desired might not be removed til his the Complainants Demand was satisfied to which these Defendants Consented and to that Intent gave the Complainant the Note annext the Bill of Complaint the Tenor of which shews the Complainant had full possession of the said Beetle and Tobacco farm and kept the Cash thereof and it was therefore Impossible these Defendants could make any Breach in the said Contract.

And these Defendants say that from the time such power was given these Defendants have never once Intermeddled with the said farm in any shape whatsoever which is plain for if the Complainant was Injured why has he been silent so many years.

In short the Complainant ought rather to render an account of his own Transactions in the said farm to the minor now of age the deceaseds son and who is the only person to whom these Defendants can be accountable as every [sic] done in his Minority was in his right only and these Defendants acted but as Executors, that the Executorship is now expired by the Minors being at age and these Defendants cannot be any longer made accountable to the said Estate but to the Minor only to whom these Defendants are ready to account for all past Transactions and to another person for the Justness of which plea these Defendants humbly appeal to the Judgment of this Honourable Court.

All which matters and things these Defendants are ready to maintain and prove the same as this Honourable Court shall award and humbly pray to be hence Dismissed with their reasonable Costs and Charges in this Behalf most wrongfully sustained.

10TH. JULY 1744.

The Replycation of Tomby Chitty of Madras Merchant Repliant, to the answer of Permaul Moodalare and Ramah Chendru of the same place Merchants Defendants.

THE Said Repliant saving and reserving to himself now and at all times hereafter all manner of Benefit and advantage of Exception to the many Errors untruths uncertainties and Imperfections in the Defendants said answer contained for Replycation thereunto saith.

THAT since the Defendants have admitted the Obligation to be Genuine it remains with them (in the humble Opinion of this Replyant) to discharge it or prove it has been discharged which this Defendant doth not in any wise admitt.

THE Consciences of the Defendants can assign a Cause why this Replyant has been so long silent in this Demand, which was no other than the repeated fair promises of the Defendants from time to time to settle and adjust the accounts from whence the Ballance arose for which the Bond under Suit was given.

THE Defendants make use of a Law [lacuna] in hopes to screen themselves from being Compelled to do what is Equity Viz^t. They say, the person who Contracted the debt sued for has a son and Heir alive, at age and capable to answer all demands at Law, and that he being arrived at age are no longer accountable to any other person than him, This plea the Defendants Introduce and appeal to this Honourable Court to support them in it. Tis Granted this plea may be good in Law, but at the same time that is admitted it must be observed that Equity was Intended for the Relief of the Law which sometimes stands in need of it as in the present Case, which stands thus: Here are two left Executors in Trust for the Heir of the Deceased, the Deceased stands Indebted on account to Tomby Chitty for which Ballance the Executors give a Bond to Tomby Chitty, thinking this Bond of sufficient Validity Tomby Chitty delivers the accounts by which the Debt appears to the Executors, some time after Tomby Chitty applies to the Defendants to pay off their Obligation since they had made a Breach in the Tenour of it by receiving the Revenues as were by the said Obligation made over to Tomby Chitty the Defendants putt off Tomby Chitty from time to time for a long while but when Tomby Chitty expects according to the Defend^{ts}. promise that the time is come where at he is to be paid, to his great surprize, he is told by the Defendants that they have delivered up their Charge to the son and heir of the deceased and that they were no longer accountable to any Body but him, with this Shuffle Tomby Chitty is sent to the Son and Heir who asks, which way the debt arose, Tomby Chitty shews his Bond, says the son and Heir that Bond is given by Permaul Moodalare and Ramah Chandru, but I do not see thereby that I am answerable, where are these Accounts upon which the Debt appears, Tomby Chitty answers, they are with Permaul Moodalare and Ramah Chendrue Replies the son and Heir produce them let me see, that the debt, be just, Tomby Chitty applies to Permaul Moodelare and Ram Chendrue for the accounts who make him the same answer as before that he must look to the Heir for payment, for they have nothing to do with any Body but him. In this manner Tomby Chitty has been trifled with and put off, One answers he is not liable to pay the Bond and the other that they are not Liable to be called to an account by any Body but the Heir so that Tomby Chitty is in away of being paid by neither (The reason Tomby Chitty sues the Defendants and not the Heir, is because according to the Law of their Cast, the Defendants are obliged to pay the money upon the Obligation, and according to the Laws of the Cast, the Defendants have not discharged their Trust as Executors till they deliver up all their accounts to the Heir and produce a Written Instrument under the hand of the Heir, in the nature of a General Release, Neither of which the Defendants have yet done and are therefore liable to pay Tomby Chittys Demand.

All which matters and things this Replyant is ready to averr maintain prove and Testify as this Honourable Court shall direct and humbly prays as in and by his said Bill he hath already prayed.

WILLIAM DUMBLETON
Attorney for the Replyant.

7TH. AUGUST 1744.

The Rejoinder of Permall Moodelare and Ramachendrue Defendants to the Replication of Tomby Chitty of Madras, Complainant.

The said Defendants saving and reserving to themselves, all manner of Benefit and advantage of Exception, to the Incertainty and Insufficiency of the said Replycation Saith.

That these Defendants said answer is certain true, and sufficient in the Law to be replied unto and these Defendants also saith

That what the Complainant calls an Obligation, is of a Quite different kind to that of a Bond for payment of money nor are these Defendants bound by any such writing to the payment of any such money.

For these Defendants never received any Consideration for the Sum mentioned in the agreement, as is plain by the Tenor of the said Writing. These Defendants signed only as Executors and at the Complainants request not for money paid or received but for money said to be due to the Complainant from the deceaseds estate, and the agreement now under Suit was only given, as a promise the Complainant should be paid out of the profits arising from his share of the Beetle and Tobacco farm, and these Defendants never did touch part of such profits, but left them to be received by the Complainant in and towards the discharge of this very debt, and the Complainant Enjoyed the same Unmolested from the deceaseds death till the Expiration of the Cowl when the Deceased's property therein Ceased, but during all this time what has the Complainant done with those profits so arising from the said Farm, and which he hath Converted to his own use, and for securing which profits to his the Complainants Use the Agreement now under.

In short the power of these Defendants as Executors is now at an End and these Defendants are ready and even desirous to deliver up all accounts to the Heir of the Deceased, who is now arrival to the age of Twenty one years, he both sues, and is sued, in this Honourable Court, which prevents these Defendants being any longer answerable for the said Estate, to any but himself these Defendants can no longer receive on account of the said Estate, and surely Equity will not Compell these Defendants where they cannot receive, these Defendants are and always have been ready to deliver up an account of their Trust when the deceaseds Heir will call them to an account, and to him alone these Defendants are accountable, if these Defendants signed any obligation during the Heirs Minority, it was in his Right and on his behalf and he is now accountable for his Executors actions and they accountable to him.

As to the Heirs pretence made to the Complainant, that the Executors Trust is not delivered in, we answer, we desire he would call upon us, the Accounts are already for his Inspection, and only wait for his Demand, and these Defendants do again Declare they will no longer pay or receive on Account of the said Estate, nor is there any Effects left so to do in these Defendants hands, and no Executor is obliged to pay any further then the estate will extend which is the Tenour of an Executors Oath and when the Effects are gone the Executors must be acquitted in Law and Equity, if the produce of the said Estate, hath been misapplied the Executors are accountable to the Heir and him only.

AND these Defendants say as in and by their said Answer they have already said and does and will aver and maintain, all and everything and things there contained to be true and certain in such manner and form as is therein and thereby set forth alledged and expressed.

HENRY DEVEIL
Attorney for the Defendants.

HUMBLY COMPLAINING sheweth unto this Honourable Court your Orator John Scott of Madraspatnam Mariner, That Poncala Ravanapah also of the same place Dubash now being within the Jurisdiction of this Honourable Court, did on a certain Bond or Writing under his Hand bearing date the 6th. day of August which was in the year of our Lord 1743 borrow of your Orator the full and just sum of 75 Pagodas Current of Madras, which sum was to run at Respondentia on the Brigantine Jellesinga [sic] Permoll of which Joseph Hendrick Kalderman was then said to be Chief Mate (but happ'ned not to go as such the Voyage from the Port of Madras aforesaid to that of Arracan and back again at the Rate of 25 ¶ Cent, and he the said Poncala Ravenapah did thereby oblige himself his Heirs Executors &c. to pay unto your Orator or his Assigns upon the safe Arrival Brigantine Tellisinga Permoll at the aforesaid Port of Madras the above mentioned sum with the Respondentia that should be due thereon, at or before Twenty one days after the safe Arrival of the said Brigantine, and in Case of the Loss of her such an Average as by Custom should be due on the salvage as in and by the said Bond or Writing in your Orators Custody ready to be produced as this Honourable Court shall direct will appear and your Orator further shews that the said Brigantine did perform the said Voyage and Arrive at the said Port of Madras on or about the 29 day of June last past and that your Orator hath demanded his said principal and Premium pursuant to the Tenor of the said Bond or Writing, but the said Poncala Ravanapah refuses to pay your Orator pretending that it was agreed between him and your Orator, That he your Orator should sail from Arracan aforesaid with the said Vessell on or before the 30th. of December last past for this Port of Madras, which he did not, and by which Neglect or delay he the said Poncala Ravanapah hath suffered a Considerable Loss by the Damage which the said Vessell hath Sustained But Your Orator humbly apprehends that in Equity he cannot be bound by the said Agreement nor ought he any way to be Answerable for the Consequences that attended the Breach of it seeing that he did all that was in his power towards the performing it, and that it was rendered impossible for him so to do by an After Act in the Noquedah Kyculla Vencatta Putty, who had a Superior Command over him. The agreement being founded on a Supposition, that the said Noquedah was to say at Arracan aforesaid But when your Orator acquainted him the said Noquedah that according to Agreement with the said Poncala Ravanapah he was on the said 30th. day of December at farthest to deliver the said Vessell to him to be brought to Madras, the said Noquedah refused so to do, so that your Orator having no power to Compell the delivery of the Vessell, in Vindication of himself protested against such proceedings as by a Translate of such protest hereunto annext will appear on the thirteenth * day of March at Arracan aforesaid the said Noquedah with one Changleriah another Noquedah on Board the said Vessell gave your Orator and the Second Mate a Certificate declaring that the disability in performing such Agreement or Obligation was occasioned by the King of Arracan's detaining of them, Translate whereof is also hereunto annexed by which he humbly hopes his Conduct as to the said Agreement will be Sufficiently Justified, Your Orator further Shews That according to the Priviledge allowed him at the Commencement of the said Voyage he carried an adventure consisting of peice Goods with him, which the said Kyculla Vencatty putty & Changleriah at Arracan aforesaid purchased, agreeing to give your Orator one Hundred [₹] Cent on the Invoice of them, which Sale amounted to one hundred and Fifty Pagodas Current of Madras, and which said Peice Goods the said Kyculla Vencatty putty and Changleria Sold to or trucked with the King of Arracan aforesaid, and had in return for the same a parcel of Elephants Teeth your Orator further Shews that the said Kyculla Vencatty putty having detained the said Vessell at Arracan aforesaid, till the Season render'd it much more difficult to obtain a passage than, otherwise it might have been, had the Vessel Sailed from Arracan at the time fixed by agreement when Meeting with bad whether [sic] the said Vessel Sprung a Leak So that your Orator with Gabriel Carvalho the Second Mate or Pilot on Board of her deeming it impracticable to reach the Port of Madras agreed with the unanimous Consent of the said Noquedah's and her Crew to make the first Port they could which happened to be that of Ramapatnam to the Northward of the Port of Madras, at which Port your Orator being about to leave the said Vessel Demanded Payment of the said Kyculla Vencatty putty & Changleriah for his peice Goods so Sold them at Arracan as aforesaid, to which they replied that they had not Money to pay him, but that they would Settle the Vessel's Account with him and pay him the Ballance in Elephants Teeth (they being the produce of his own Goods) to which adjustment of Accounts your Orator Consented as by a Copy thereof hereunto annexed will appear, and, for the Ballance thereof being Pagodas One hundred and Seventy reced. 24 Teeth Weighing 497 pound which Teeth he put on board a Country Boat and arrived with them at Madras on the 24th day of June last and on the 26th day of the Same Month, the said Poncala Ravenapah Seized on, and has detain'd the same as pretending they were his property and that the Noquedah's had no Right to dispose of them. But now so it is may it please this Honourable Court your Orator is not able to obtain relief in the premisses either on Account the said Respondentia Bond or

And more particularly that he may Setforth and say Whether he did not give such Bond or Writing, at Respondentia as aforesaid and whether the said Noquedah's or either of them were not part Owner, or part owners of the said Vessel, and what Authority they had to dispose of her outward bound Cargo and purchase a returning one, and whether they had any and what discretionary Power, authority or Priviledge as Noquedah's of the said Vessel or otherwise of their Own. ROBT. SLOPER,

Attorney for the Complainant.

WE UNDER named do hereby Certify and Declare, that the Brigantine call'd Tellesinga Permoll departed from the dock in the Month of December and came to an Anchor in Sight thereof where she rode on four Hawsters by the Noquedah's order untill the Salt in the Banksall was Sold, and one Evening came Ramah on Board the Brigantine and we ask'd him, when the Noquedah woud load the Brigantine & the s^d. Ramah answer'd, us before all the officers and Lascars of the Brigantine, that the Noquedah has kept the letter, which the Owner sent to the King of Arracan, and the said Ramah does Say that he had Sent his man before the officers and Lascars of the said Brigantine to his house to fetch the said letter and Shewd it to us in the presence of Brigantine officers and Lascars, and we ask'd Ramah how the Noquedah could hide the Letter of the King, to which the said Ramah reply'd that the Noquedah had contracted with the King to keep two People in Arracan nam'd Chinglarayah & Comrapah, and the said Chinglarayah desired to have a Woman during the time he resided in Arracan, accordingly the Noquedah bought a Wench for Thirty five Rupees by the Kings leave, and first acquainting him that Chinglarayah desired that Wench, which the King gladly Consented to, and promised to give one hundred maunds of Elephants Teeth and a Cargo to load the Brigantine with saying that although Ravonapah has not Sent him a letter accompany'd with so great a Present as was Expected, yet with all possible alacrity, the Vessel should be Loaded, so as to be dispatch'd by the beginning of January for Madras. That day the Noquedah waited on the head Chakia and told him what pass'd between him and the King, whereupon the head Chakia also took it upon him to Speak to the King in his behalf to be as Expeditious as possible, and the King assured the head Chakia so to do, if the said Noquedah would perform his promise in resigning to the King those Persons at Arracan, which performance the King would Comply with what he has already promised him and the head Chakiah assured the King upon the Noquedahs word that the two People Should Stay in Arracan, So that the King repeated his promise in giving the aforesaid Goods and dispatching the Vessel in the beginning of January to Madras, in order to bring on his Account Silver and Lead agreeable to their Engagement on their return in the Month of April, which the said Noquedah divulged and all the Brigantine's Crew heard it, Since that time the Noquedah was Seized with a fever, So that Ramah used to go and speak to the King concerning the Cargo he had promised for the Brigantine, and in this juncture dyd one Comrah and the King ask'd Ramah where are those People which the Noquedah promised to keep there, and Ramah answer'd that Comrah was deceased and there Remains Chingalrayah and the Noquedah Sick, and Ramah promised the King to bring the Noquedah's answer, and the Noquedah asked Chingalrayah, if he would stay and he said he would not: three days afterw^{ds}. the Noquedah sent to tell the King that he could not leave his people there, and that he did not want for a Cargo of the Vessel, nor what the King promised, and desired to Settle accounts with him, and the King gave the Noquedah no more audience in the Place nor adjust'd his Accounts because he fail'd in his word, which has been the Occasion of so great a delay, & he invested some Money in precious Stones and Gold, which Ramah and his Boy discover'd by want of Money to dispatch the Vessell, when WE PROTESTED against the Noquedah that the limited time of our agreement was over, and asked him when will be our departure, his answer was that he knew not when, to which we reply'd that if we had money only to pay our men we could repair on board the Vessel and set Sail, and the Noquedah's Expressions were that, how could we Sail when he was both Noquedah and owner of the Vessells that he gave us no Wages. IN WITNESS whereof we have hereunto set our hands.

25TH. SEPTEMBER 1744.

THE ANSWER of Poncala Ravanah Merchant of Madras Complainant To the Bill of Complaint of John Scott of the said place Marriner.

THE SAID Defendant Saving and reserving to himself all manner of benefit and advantage of exception to the manifold errors incertaintys and insufficiencys of the said bill contain'd for answer thereunto or to so much thereof as this Defendant is advised Materialy concern him to make answer unto, he this Defendant answereth & Saith

That as to the Respondentia Bond this Defendant admitts and allows it to be Just for all other Accounts said to be had with the Noquedah Lett him the Complainant Account with the Noquedah for them and this defendant admits to be possessed of the Elephants teeth and humbly conceives it is part of the Cargo & therefore the owners right and property, and this Defendant denys to account with the Complainant with any thing, but his respondentia for the following reasons Viz^t.

First Because the Complainant has compell'd a payment of the owners cargo for a Debt not Contracted for the Owners use nor advantage.

Secondly tis plain the Complainant with the other Mate came more by design than chance into Ramnapatam by making up their Accounts at that distance Leaving the Vessell without any officer but the Syrang concealing the Ships cargo & sending it in a private manner to Madras and taking the advantage of that distance to screw the Noquedah's out of what they pleased.

Thirdly they left the Vessell without an officer when they Could as well have brought her up hither and accounted with the owner if any demand was to be made.

Fourthly The Complainant and his Brother was privey to the concealing the Letter to the King of Arracan when they ought to have discover'd it to the King for that by their own Declaration they were Shewn the Letter and told it was to be conceal'd insomuch that the Vessell by that foul Ommission was return'd back with half her Cargo.

Fifthly This Defendant humbly Conceives he is answerable only for the respondentia bonds and is to have all the Cargo Deliver'd up to him as by an award bearing date 30th of July 1744 Lately Given in to the Hon'ble Nicholas Morse Esqr. and humbly Presented for the Inspection to this honourable Court.

Sixthly and Lastly this Defendant declares solemnly, the Noquedahs had no General power but was ty'd down by that letter they so Unjustly Conceal'd nor had any title either to Buy or sell the Cargo and was only to receive it and Safely Convey it Heither so that if the Complainant has purchased any Elephants teeth they are purchased of a person who had no authority to Sell or Exchange for his Unecessary Contracts which does not Conduce to forwarding the Vessell or Cargo nor had the Noquedah's Occasion for any such Goods having an outward bound Cargo of 2990 pagodas which was sufficient to supply the Vessell with any thing usefull Besides the Complainant in Breatch of his Contract. Under hand did remain three Months after the time limitted by his obligation ready to be produced as this honourable [Court] shall Direct and by which Breatch of Contract the Complain^t. cannot in conscience demand Wages for such Disobedience and therefore this Defendant humbly Conceives he is not answerable for such.

All such matters and things this Defendant is ready to aver maintain and prove as this honble Court shall Direct and humbly prays to Be hence Dismissed with his reasonable Cost in this behalf most wrong-fully Sustained.

Attorney for the Defendant.

MAY 25TH. 1744, RAMNAPATNAM
 ERRORS EXCEPTED
 P. G. CARVALHO.

25TH SEPTEMBER 1744.

THE ANSWER of Poncola Ravenapah of Madras Merchant, Defendant to the Bill of Complaint of Gabriel Carvalho, of the said place Marriner Complainant.

THIS DEFENDANT Saving and reserving to himself, all and all manner of exception, to the many errors, Incertaintys, and Insufficiencys, and untruths, in the Complainants bill contain'd for answer thereunto or to so much thereof as this Defendant is advised materialy concern him to Make answer unto, he this Defendant answereth and Saith.

That this Defendant doth humbly conceive he is in no wise answerable for the Complainants present demand, for that the Complainant with the other Mate hath conniv'd at this Defendants ruin, by entering into a collusion with each other, to defrau'd this Defend^t. of his Cargo, in the following Manner.

The Complainant in his Bill pretends /or perhaps really did/sell the Noquedah's the Several Goods amounting to 250 Pagodas, and tis very possible the ballance remaining due betwixt the Complainant and the Noquedahs, may be or have been 170 Pagodas. But this Defendant humbly Conceives, that the Complainants private contracts and concerns does not in the least Effect the owner, tis very plain the debt was not contracted for the Ships use, and if not tis very hard, it should be paid out of the Ships Cargo, which never benefited therby, and it will be very hard on this Defendant to be answerable, for all the private transactions of the Noquedah, because they are intrusted with a Ship's Cargo, let the Complaint^t. Make it appear. that the Selling his adventure to the Noquedahs, was of any advantage to the Owners, or that the Owners did propose in any Shape to bring the profits of such adventure to the owners credit, this Defendant humbly conceives the Owners are answerable in equity for no more than what is apply'd to the Immediate use of the Vessel, and for her support and forwarding.

With what view could the Complainant sell the Noquedahs the adventure at 100 p. Cent, or what prospect of advantage could there be Intended to the owners; when the Complainant found he had contracted a desperate debt with a man of Bad principals, he to save himself tryes to saddle the debt upon the owners, by Stopping part of the Cargo, for a Debt not known by the owners, not contracted by the Owners, nor converted to the owners use.

The Elephants teeth the Complainant pretends to be his property, is almost all the returns this Defendant hath received Principal	...	...	...	...	...	...	2,300	—	--

If the Complainants demand was Just, and the Owners ought to pay it, why did the Complainant Extort a payment at Sea, why was not this demand made upon the owners in a fair account at the arrival of the Vessel, as all accounts are then adjusted, and why did the Complainant with the Noquedahs carry the Vessel to Ramapatnam under pretence of bad Weather, when at the Same time arrived here other Ships from the Same port in very good Condition, but Suppose even what the Complainant pretends to be true, that the vessel was drove thaither, that can be no reason for the Complainant to take out her Cargo when she was there, to sell her rice and Ship the Elephants teeth on board a private boat, sent to Madras, had the Complainant thought he had dealt honestly why could they not as well have brought the vessel and cargo here, as bring the vessel empty here which the Complainant found a way to Do, notwithstanding all bad Weather, after he had Got the rice sold which the Naquedah's themselves had no athority for doing, for the Naquadah's had only a power to Act. by Directions of the King of Arrackan, to whom this Defendant Sent a letter of advice, which was also unjustly conceal'd.

and not deliver'd to the King, through which means the vessel was detain'd long beyound her time, and brought very Little back, to this Defendants utter ruin, all which the Defendant is a Great Sufferer by, and all which proceedings the Complainant was acquainted with, and yett notwithstanding the Naquedah's had no power to act of themselves, Notwithstanding they had conceal'd the letter to the King of Arracan, notwithstanding the said Naquedahs were plainly acting to the utter ruin of the Owner, and against all Instructions, notwithstanding the said Teeth was the produce of a large outsett, and the Owners property, yett the Complainant did nevertheless Possess himself of a quantity of rice & teeth which the Naquadah's had no authority to sell, and therefore the Complainant could have no good title to purchase, and more Especially being at the same time in the Complainants Service and pay and ought if any thing to have prevented as much as in his power lay, all such unjust dealings.

Upon the whole this Defendant absolutly denyys he is indebted one Cash to the Complainant but that he is indebted to the Ship or his owner Pagodas 81. 1. 16 as by the account annext to this Defendants answer will more fully appear and that this demand may be clearly made out, this Defendant has Marked the Several articles in the Complainants account, with the letter A which this Defendant object to as unjust and not in the last regarding the Owners of the Vessel, but is a private account Contracted between the Complainant and the Naquedahs and which was in no wise converted to the owners use, neither by Defraying of the Vessels Charges, nor by any Exchange for a Cargo as falsely pretended, for why should the Naquedahs purchase of the Complainant 125 Pagodas of Goods, at the Extravagant rate of 100 p. Cent when the principal of the outward bound Cargo was 2300 pagodas and why was not that more Sufficient to Exchange for Elephants Teeth, or if as the Complainant pretends the produce of his small adventure purchased the Elephants Teeth, what became of the whole Cargo, and this Defendant absolutly denyys to be any ways Lyable for the Complaints account Sales of his adventure to the Naquedah's unless this Defendant had been told, and had Consented to such purchase which never would have come to pass, so that the articles Marked with the letter A in the account annext this Defendant objects to as unjust, and to be accounted for only by the Naquadahs to who'se use the produce was converted.

As to the Articles Marked with the letter B, they are acknowledged by the Complainant in his own Account and therefore this Defendant debts him for the same being all either Money or Goods taken up of the Ship, the Ships Cargo deliver'd by the King of Arracan and undoubtedly the owners right & property.

As to the Elephants teeth they are not Charged for in this Defendants Account, because they are admitted to be Stopt, and in this Defendants Custody as being part of the owners Cargo, Clandestinely Shifted out of the owners Vessel, with an Intent to Land the same at Madras under another name.

And to Answer the Complainants Questions the Naquedahs are in no wise nor part owners of the said Vessel, nor was to have pay any benefit more then part of the proffits which should arise from the proffits of the Voyage, their power was limited by the letter they conceal'd and which the now Complainant ought to have discovered to the King of Arracan. and This Defendant Lastly saith that he is ready and willing to pay all the Respondentia taken up at the outsett of the Vessel and received into his custody the cargo brought back as by an award of arbitration Lately Given into the Honourable Nicholas Morse Esq^r. Bearing date 30th July 1744 and which is humbly offered to the Inspection of this honourable Court to be made such use of, as to this Honourable Court shall seem Meet, and this Defendant humbly prays, that if this Defendants account shall be deem'd Just, that then this Defendant may obtain a Decree of this honourable Court for Pagodas 81. 1 fanam without any cross bill being filed for that purpose, for that besides the said 81 pagodas this Defendant hath Just cause of Complaint ag^t. the Complainant for all the lost and charges sustain'd by the Vessels Delay after the Complainant had Given it under his hand to Dispatch her in December 1743 whereas she did not break Ground tile 13th of March 1743/4 to this Defendants Great Loss and for which breach of Contract the Complainant is in equity answerable for such Extraordinary Wages, should the Complainant Urge the Naquedahs Superior power that pretence would be Groundless for the Naquedah's were equally bound to the Mates for the same performance by another obligation they signed which impower'd the Complainant to act without Danger but so far from Effecting what they had they never made any attempts to bring the Vessel away.

All which Matters and things this Defendant is ready to aver maintain and prove as this honble Court shall Direct and humbly prays to Be hence dismissed with his reasonable Cost in this behalf most wrongfully Sustain'd.

Kycola Venkata putty & Chengalroya.
Dated the 30th July 1744.

TO THE HONOURABLE NICHOLAS MORSE ESQ^R.

PRESIDENT AND GOVERNOUR OF FORT ST. GEORGE.

WHEREAS Paukala Ramnapa had a Dispute with Kycola Venkataputty and Chengalroyah concerning Certain dealings and at last both parties agreed by signing a Penalty bond before your honour, to have it Decided by us, We therefore, upon application made to us, Examined the Circumstances of their Dispute & the accounts depending between them, whereby it appeared that the said Kycola Venkataputty & Changlerioiah did not deliver the Letter which was given them by Ramanapa for the King of Arakan but concealed the same, besides which the accounts which they produced were Evidently wrote in Different Manner, upon these considerations we award that Ramnapah shall take all the Rice, Elephants Teeth & other Commodities that were imported by the Ship, into his Possession and pay the Several Creditors, who lent moneys at Respondentia on her their respective Demands of Principal & Respondentia and that whatever Ballance shall remain, when the payment is made as above, it is to be made good to the said Ramanapa by the said Kycola Venkataputty and Chengalroya according to Ramana-pas own account and as the Sum Borrowed of the Pilot and Maul Bandary, was taken up without Ramnapahs Directions, we do therefore think fit to award that the said Kycola Venkataputty and Chengalroya shall discharge the said Debt themselves Thus we make this award jointly Witness our hands.
