appear to be founded on ~~some~~ mistake in the Copies of the papers on those Subjects which were forwarded to England. The Rates of passage money to Officers proceeding to England were in a former letter Conclusively fixed by the Ho-Honorable Court. It would Seem inexpedient to Reduce the allowance for Stationary to Pay-masters of Kings Regiments as it is already found to be inadequate. The delay in adjusting the late Mr. Paymaster Thompson's Accounts was occasioned by that Gentleman and not by the public Offices through which they passed. To
