462 The Commander in Chief concurs in the Military Board's opinion, that a part of the old Barrack at Thomas's Mount will be available for the purpose of a canteen, and that the construction of a permanent canteen at Quilon must depend on the decision of Government as to the construction of permanent barracks, &c. &c. If there should be reason to delay this decision for an indefinite period, H. E. thinks that a temporary canteen should be built. H. E. considers Walajabad to be an eligible station for a European Regiment, but agrees with the Military Board, that the opinion of Government on this point can alone determine the expediency of erecting a canteen at that cantonment. His Excellency concurs in the Military Board's intention to erect the canteens as near as possible to the European Barracks at the different stations; and, generally in the remaining points contained in their report of the 1st of August 1815. —
