GENERAL ORDERS.

HEAD QUARTERS,
Fort St. George, 30th April 1831.

At a European General Court Martial held at Nundydroog, on Monday, the 14th day of February 1831, Lieutenant Thomas Ignatius Campbell, of His Majesty's 46th Regiment of Foot, was arraigned on the following Charges.

First Charge.—For scandalous and infamous behaviour, unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in the following Instances.

1st Instance.—In having, at Nukrecul, on the 7th of September 1830, disgracefully associated with James Potts, a Lance Corporal of His Majesty's 46th Regiment of Foot, Patrick Hynes, a Private of the same Regiment, and Bridget Keefe, a Follower of the same Regiment; he, the said Lieutenant Campbell, sitting down, singing and drinking in such unbecoming society; and so continuing to drink until intoxicated.

2d Instance.—In having at the same place, on the 8th of September 1830, again disgracefully associated with the persons specified in the first Instance of Charge, singing and drinking, and so continuing to drink until intoxicated.

Second Charge.—For conduct to the prejudice of good order and Military Discipline in the following Instances.

1st Instance—In having, at Nukrecul, on the 7th of September 1830, irregularly, and without due cause or authority, deprived Owen Smith, Corporal of His Majesty's 46th Regiment of Foot, of the Command of an Escort, to which, he, the said Corporal Smith had been duly appointed; and [illegible] ordering him into confinement; and placing Samuel James Potts, Lance Corporal of the said Regiment, in charge of the said Escort.

2d Instance.—In having, at the same place, on the same day, used grossly insulting language towards the said Corporal Smith.

3d Instance.—In having, at the same place, on the 8th of September 1830, unnecessarily detained the Escort in question, then on its march to Poonamallee, so continuing to detain it until the afternoon of the day following.

The above being in breach of the Articles of War.

Upon which Charges the Court came to the following decision.

Finding.—The Court having most maturely weighed and considered the [illegible] brought forward in support of the Prosecution, as well as [illegible] Campbell of His Majesty's 46th Regiment of Foot, has urged in his Defence, and [illegible] answers.

Finding on the First Instance of the First Charge.—That the Prisoner is Guilty of having at Nukrecul on the 7th of September 1830, disgracefully associated with Bridget Keefe, a Follower of His Majesty's 46th Regiment of Foot, and of drinking and sitting down in her company, with James Potts, a Lance Corporal of the same Regiment, and Patrick Hynes, a Private of the same Regiment, but the Court finds that the Prisoner is not Guilty of any other part of the First Charge, and therefore acquits him of every other part of it.

Finding on the Second Instance of the First Charge.—That the Prisoner is Guilty of having at the same place, on the 8th of September 1830, again disgracefully associated with the persons specified in the first Instance of His Majesty's 46th Regiment of Foot, and of drinking in her society, Sam[illegible] Corporal of the same Regiment, and Patrick Hynes, a Private of the same Regiment, present; but the Court finds that the Prisoner is not Guilty of any other part of the First Charge, and therefore acquits him of every other part of it.

The Court finds the behaviour of the Prisoner in the first Instance of the Second Charge becoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, but the Court acquits him of the second behaviour.

Finding on the First Instance of the Second Charge.—That the Prisoner is Guilty of the Second Charge.

Finding on the Second Instance of the Second Charge.—That the Prisoner is Guilty of the first Instance of the Second Charge, and the Court acquits him of the second Instance of the Second Charge, and the Court acquits him of the [illegible]
