1879 Oct. 8th Rs 8.00

On the 23rd Sept. 1879 I received a letter of this date from the Plffs attys Messrs Branson & Co requesting to return the Writ herein & release the 3rd Defdt.

The Sheriffs Officer produced before this Court the Defdt. Harry Van Ingen and reported that he had arrested him last evening at Messrs Waller & Walker's Chambers.

Mr. Branson prayed that the Defdt be released from arrest on the ground that at the time he was on his way from his private residence at Nolacaramund to attend at the hearing of Causes in this Court to which he is a party.

As the Defendant Defdt has satisfied the Court that he was on his way from his residence at Nolacaramund to attend Causes in this Court in which he was a party, I admit the privilege urged by him and direct that he be released from arrest. - It is agreed no suit shall be brought against the Sheriff or his Officers or against the Decree holder in respect of this arrest.
