I am extremely sorry to find that you are again under error in this matter, for if you will refer to my letter to your address of the 23d of April last you will there find that what is required to enable me to effect service of Process, is that the Original process or Summons should be forwarded to me together with as many certified copies and translations thereof respectively as there may be parties on whom the latter is required to be served, and the Service having been effected on all the parties or some of them and others not found, it is then my duty to return to you the Original Process or Summons with my endorsement according to the fact-

On the present occasion you have sent me Six Original Summonses, instead of one Original Summons with Six certified Copies and translations the two latter of which are required for delivery to the Six parties, and the Original (with the Judges endorsement thereon) to be produced to the parties at the time of the Service and afterwards forwarded to you with my return thereon as to what I have done-

Chingleput 4th October 1852

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th Ultimo returning the Summons in Duplicate Viz. in Session Case No. 18 of 1852 forwarded in my letter of the 22nd idem and stating that Streenevasa Pillay for whose appearance before me the said Summons was issued, is not to be found within the local limits of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras.

In reply I beg to state that it is of the greatest importance that Streenevasa Pillay should appear before me and I have reason to believe that he has an object in evading the process of this Court as he is most desirous not to subject himself to an examination in the matter regarding which his evidence is necessary. I have further grounds for believing that he is at this moment residing in his own house at Madras and it being of the highest importance for the ends of Justice that he should appear in my Court I must again request your good offices towards securing his attendance.

Streenevasa Pillay would I know willingly do any thing to avoid attending at Chingleput and I have no doubt that he has already paid something considerable to the person entrusted by you with the process of this Court to induce him to make a false return or endorsement but I earnestly hope that you will cooperate with me to prevent the success of an evident attempt on his part to frustrate the course of Justice which, for reasons it is necessary to detail here, demands that his examination should be taken.

I beg again to forward the Summons in duplicate with the certified translations originally sent in my letter of the 22nd Ulto and I trust to your insisting on its being properly served.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 30th Ultimo, and in reply to inform you that since the receipt of your letter of the 4th Ultimo, I have privately placed the Summons in Duplicate with the certified translations thereof in Session Case №. 18 of 1852 into the hands of two other of my most active and smart Bailiffs with strict injunctions to them to use all deligence to serve the said Summons on the party therein named, but I regret to state that up to this time neither of the said Bailiffs have been successful in effecting the service thereof. They respectively state that they had several times gone to the place of residence of the party in question and also to the houses of some of his friends and relations, where it was supposed he would be found; and that on all such occasions they, the Bailiffs, were told by the inmates of and others about these houses that the party had left Madras and gone up the Country.

I shall now place the Summons into the hands of another of my Bailiffs with the like strict injunctions in regard to the service thereof.

I shall be very happy at all times to use my efforts for the attainment of the ends of Justice and if you can give me any clue so as to enable me to bring home to any of my native Subordinates the practice you allude to in your letter, I shall immediately follow it up and punish the Offender. At present I am without any such clue; but I am quite aware that with native Subordinates the greatest vigilance and strictest Supervision is necessary to prevent malpractice and Corruption amongst them.

Sir,

Since writing the accompanying letter marked A to you, Sreenevassa Pillay sent his Peon to my Office to state that he had just arrived from the Country and having heard that there was some process to be served upon him requested that it might be sent to him at his place of business in Maclean Street in the Black Town of Madras, where he then was; whereupon my Bailiff immediately proceeded with the Summons in Company with the Peon, and served the same upon Sreenevassa Pillay, by delivering to him personally the Duplicate of the said Summons and of the translation thereof; and I have now the honor of returning the Original Summons, with an endorsement thereon by the said Sreenevassa Pillay, & the certified translation of the said Summons.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 2d instant, and in reply to state that as Alan Browning Esqr

Esqr. was not to be found within the local limits of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, the two Summonses forwarded with your letter of the 1st. September last were returned to you with my letter of the 2d. instant, in which this fact was mentioned.

My Bailiff, who was entrusted with the service of the said Summonses reported to me that upon strict and diligent enquiry he ascertained that Mr. Browning had left Madras some time about the middle of Sempteмber last and I find this fact borne out, by seeing the name of Mr. Browning as a Passenger for Calcutta on Board the American Ship "Delhi" which left Madras on the 18th. September last. (Vide Fort St. George Gazette of the 21st. September 1852 Page 930).

Chingleput 8th November 1852

Sir,

1 I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of the 3d. Instant returning the Summons for the attendance of Streenevassa Pillay before my Court duly served.

2 I observe on the Summons there is an endorsement signed by the said "Streenevassa Pillay" to the effect that he will attend as soon as his expences for Coming to Chingleput and returning to Madras are paid to him, as well as the expence of living while at Chingleput.

3. All reasonable expences will be paid to Streenevassa Pillay as prescribed. I do not know whether it is usual with Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature to pay such expences in anticipation. I imagine not, and therefore it will be sufficient that Streenevassa Pillay be reimbursed after his arrival at Chingleput & his evidence is taken. but if it is Customary to pay beforehand or there is any precedent for doing so in cases like the present I shall feel obliged by your making any reasonable advance you may think proper and which which will be duly remitted to you from this Court.

4 I am very anxious for Streenevassa Pillay's early attendance, the case having been so long under trial, and I must therefore request you will direct him to attend without any further delay.

5 The Summons is enclosed for your inspection of the endorsement.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th instant, enclosing the Summons served upon Streenevassa Pillay, which latter I now return to you.

The endorsement had not escaped any notice and I called your attention to it in my last letter of the 3d. instant.

Without giving any opinion as to the correctness of the present practice practice, I am informed that it is not usual to tender Witnesses their expences, and that Warrants of arrest issued by the Mofussil Courts for disobedience to Subpœnas have been executed against them without such tender having been made.

My Lord,

In forwarding the accompanying Warrant for your signature, I think it my duty to state that the process for disobedience to which Streenevasa Pillay is now to be attached was served by the Sheriff of Madras under Act XXIII of 1840 and to submit for your Lordship's consideration that the language of Section IV of the above Act would seem to imply that the Witness should be punished in Her Majesty's Courts. I have also the honor to state that the Witness now sought to be attached expressed his willingness to obey the Subpœna on his expences being paid him and that he made an endorsement on the Original Subpœna to the effect, which Original with its endorsement, has been returned to the Mofussil Court

Sir,

I am obliged by your letter of yesterday drawing my attention to Section 4 of Act XXIII of 1840.

The warrant as I collect from the instrument has been issued in a Criminal case to enforce the attendance of a witness to give evidence the punishment of the witness for disobedience of the original Subpœna must be in H M Court.

The point as to the expences of the witness would have been applicable had the case been of a civil nature.
