Rajahmundry
Civil Court
5th January 1858.

From, J. Ratliff Esqre
Acting Civil Judge of Rajahmundry

To, The Sheriff of Madras

Sir, In acknowledging receipt, this day of your communication under date 31st Ultimo together with that of the unserved "Notice", I cannot but express extreme surprise at the tenor of the former, seeing, that both the, (then) private residence, and place of business, of Defendant, were distinctly notified; knowing moreover, that he has been openly resident, & openly moving about, the limits of the Supreme Court, for some time previous to, ever since, issue of this "notice"; & having been, Credibly, informed that he has on several occasions in private letters to this place expressed surprise that the said Notice has never been served upon him, aware, as he had been made, of its being in your Office.

2. It is true that he has, apparently, changed his residence from the Prince of Wales's to the Royal, Hotel, but this, even if prior to receipt of Notice, could not have been any real bar to the due serving, by any ordinarily intelligent or willing, Sheriff's Officer, in as much as failing one Hotel, even if unable there to obtain information, he could readily have ascertained the Defendant's whereabouts, by application at others; or at the place of business indicated.

3. I have accordingly the honor to return the Notice (with an alteration of date for appearance) to request that you will be good enough to, at once, insure the due serving of the same, in Communication if needs be, with (the real Plaintiffs) Messrs Arbuthnot &c.

& to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
