To
The Sheriff of Madras

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. 277, dated 23d Instant enclosing a communication from J G Clarke Esqre the Madras Town Police Court I have the honor to state that this Court is established under the provisions of Act IX of 1850 as extended, under the designation of Regulations, with certain modifications suited to the requirements of the place, by the Governor General of India in Council. The Mysore is foreign territory and has no legislative Council of its own, and derives all its laws either from the extention by the Governor General in Council of the acts of the Government of India, to this Province or by Regulations framed by the local Government and Sanctioned by the Governor General of India in Council. These regulations have therefore all the force and validity of Statute laws. There can therefore in my humble opinion be no valid objection to attesting affidavits & executing processes under these regulations.
