20.	O.S. No. 8 of 1849 on the file of the Principal Sudr Ameen's Court — Notice	Mungu Parankusrow Plaintiff — Immaneni Venkatasamy Naidu Defendant	Immaneni Venkatasamy Noidoo an Inhabitant of Nellore now living in the vicinity of the Pagoda of Hamala Venayakudy in the Salay Street at Madras Defendant	Zillah Principal Sudr Ameen's Court Nellore.	1849	1849	1849	Rs as p	1849	Peons	1849	Peons Justice 23d. February 1849.

The Plaintiff in conformity to the order passed by the Court of Swor Adalut instituted the suit against the Defendant & alleges in his plaint that when the Defendant continued in the situation of Assistant Sheristadar in the Collectors Office of the Zillah of Nellore he (Defdt) executed an agreement to the Plff at Nellore on the 11th June 1820 with terms "that he would live at the Upstairs "house which the Plff has at Nellore; that on the "mortgage of the house he would lend him 300 Rs; "that he might have had occasion to leave off the house, he would "recover the sum from the Plaintiff & put the house in "his (Plffs) possession" that then the Defdt paid him the amount & lived in the Plffs house upto about 3 years as before; when the Defendant having lost his situation intended to proceed to Callapatam, at which time he (Plff) told the Defendant, that he would pay him the sum due; & that he should put him (Plff) in possession of his house; but that the Defendant used to put off by promises; that the Defendant then locked the house without the knowledge of the Plff left it off & went to & has been at Madras since these two years. The Plff therefore prays the Court to cause him to pay the Defendant the above mentioned sum of 300 Rs and adjudge the Defendant to put him (Plff) in possession of the house which is partly tiled & partly Upstairs &c. of the value of 725 and also direct the Defdt to pay him (Plff) a sum of 500 Rs. for the repairs of the house it being unoccupied since he (Defendant) left it.
