1853 Returned with the following endorsement thereon by the Honorable the Chief Justice.

Augt 26th The within Warrant I consider to be defective & bad on the face of it. whether issued under the Regulation IX of 1816 or at common law. I declined to endorse the Warrant and on the ground that there was not any information on oath but because there did not appear to have been any information at all before the Magistrate, or sufficient cause for the apprehension of the party on the report of a Police Officer.

Supra Cs. 26. Aug 1853. (signed) Thos. Rawlinson

The Warrant appears also defective in not stating any place at which the Offence is alleged to have been committed.
