Veerabadra Chetty Shop Keeper ——— Plaintiff

Mr. N Salter Residing in Cholay Bangalore Defendant

The Plaintiff claims from Defendant Rupees 184-7-3 being the Principal and Interest of a signed Bond with further interest upto the time of payment.

By Notice & Letter were issued to the Defendant, but they were returned without service as the Defendant was not to be found.

In a list of his Creditors produced in this Court, the Defendant has himself inserted the Amount of the Bond filed in the present case, as due to the Plaintiff. The Principal due is mentioned in the list but as the Interest is clearly specified in the Bond, I consider the Plaintiffs Claim to be fully proved, by the Defendants own Showing. I accordingly Decree that Defendant shall pay Plaintiff Rupees 184-7-3 being Principal & Interest to the date of this Decree, Summons Batta Annas 2/4 in all Rupees One hundred & Eighty four Annas Nine & Pice three, as also all subsequently becoming Interest at 1½ Per Cent per mensem on the principal till the final liquidation of the same.

Although the Defendant has been ex parte in this Case yet as he has produced a List of his Creditors and there being no deception attempted, fees has not been imposed on Defendant.

71 Suit No. 723 of 1858 on the file of the Court of the Principal Sadr Munsiff

Decree

Tiri Soobroy Moodally residing at Ulsoor ... Plaintiff

Thungavelu son of Veerasawmy Pillay of the Ulsoor Hospital and the late resident of Ulsoor now residing at Poondamallee Madras ... Defendant

The Plaintiff claims from Defendant Rupees 214-1-4 being the Principal Interest and bond fees together with further interest to the date of payment of principal.

Notice was duly served upon Defdt but he having failed to attend to defend his case, an Ex parte Trial was commenced with the Plaintiff's Witnesses & Documents.

The 1st Witness Vellore Monasawmy Moodr states that, he is one of the attesting witness to the Bond which Defendant caused to be drawn out in favor of Plaintiff stating that he will recover Rs 100 & odd Rs from Vellore Conara sawmy Moodr as due by Coins and pay one third of it Rupees 150 to Plaintiff. The 2d Witness Saravana Moodely states that he was the Writer of the Bond. And the 3 Witness Coonara sawmy Moodr the Shoulder of the Nundra Talook of the Carnaticor Village states that the Defendant's father had filed a Suit for Rupees 900 being principle and Interest upon a bond granted in favor of Defendant's father Veerasawmy Pillay for Rs 450 and that a Razeenamah having been entered into to pay the principle and the Court Costs that he paid the whole Amount to Defendant.

The tenor of the bond upon which the Claim is based is that the Sum of Rupees 450 due upon a Bond granted by Coonara sawmy in favor of Deft's father not having been recovered on its being made over by Defendant's father to Plaintiff. The Plaintiff promises to recover the said Amount and pay Deft one third of it Viz. Rupees 150 with interest and Bond fees.

The Panchayets finding the Case closed in this manner gave a Mahazer to the effect that the date on which the Amount was recovered for Deft is not Known; it is therefore reasonable that Deft shall pay Plff principal Rupees 150 being one third of 460 Rupees recovered with interest from date of Decree.

I concur with the above Mahazer as it is a just one and decree declaring interest 58-4- Claimed, that Defendant shall pay to Plff Rs 150 being principal above Rupees 5-13-4 being Bond fees according to the note made in the Bond and Summons Batta -10-0 with all Rupees 156-7-4 with Interest at 1 per Cent per mensem from the date of Decree.

As Defendant has failed to attend the Court according to the Notice served upon him it is adjudged that he shall pay Court Fees of Rupees 9-11-10 for the Amount proved against him in the ex parte enquiry.

129 No 198 of 1858 on the file of the Court of the Civil Judge Munsiff of Bangalore Cantonment Decree

Donty Vencataramiah a resident of the Cantonment Plaintiff

Balaty Sungaramiah residing at Madras Defendant

The Plaintiff claims from Defdt Rs 140 being principal and interest of a Simple Bond Dated Each Dent Rs 70 Rs 70 Stamp on the same Rs 115-8 and Rs 3 - - - Costs of the Deft in all Rupees 183 - - - - -

The Deft in his answer put in on the 30 December 1859 stated that he was in Calcutta on the 10 December 1849 to the effect that all the Creditors should file their Complaints in the Court but the Plaintiff failed to do so, and has now filed this Suit. Consequently the Defendant requests that a perpetual may be made to this Suit and the Claim non suited.

The proceedings of the Case having been put into the hands of a Panchayet for their opinion in the matter, they having been their Maharzer stating that a petty has been received from the Police Court in which there is no mention made of the Security as stated by the Deft. The execution of the Bond has been clearly proved by the Witness. It is therefore proper that Deft shall pay to Plff Rupees 140 - - - & Costs the principal interest of the Bond. The Sundry sum of Rs 13-2-0 stands supported by one Witness and being an Account below the Jurisdiction of this Court, that the Plaintiff may file his suit for the same in the proper Courts and that Deft shall pay Plff the principal and Interest of the Bond above exclusively.

As the Maharzer of the Punchayet is reasonable; it is adjudged that Defendant shall the Decree in question shown the same shall be enforced.
