Vincent submits Deft. cannot be committed as he has not been arrested by Sheriff; and if he has been arrested by Sheriff the arrest is wrongful, as Deft. being brought up under Rule of Court to give evidence — By. Sheriff states that Deft. is not in Sheriff's custody, but happening to be in Court and Supdt. of Jails not objecting he is brought in custody of Supdt. of Jails to be dealt with according to law under this Warrant.

Barclay submits Court has power to commit Deft. as he is brought up - no matter whether by Sheriff or Supdt. of Prisons. —

Innes J. — I consider I have no power to commit Deft. as he has not been arrested by Sheriff, and is not taken up in his custody - C.W.S.
