I removed the 1st 2nd & 3rd Defts with their furniture from the premises, and locked up the unoccupied rooms. The mother of the Defendants objected to leaving the house for reasons given in her statement marked A. the tenant also refused to remove according to his own statement marked B. Both parties made Statements this day as below which were taken down by me & they refused to either sign or give them.

A. Rangama or Rangakaiakmal Chetty:- I am mother of Defendants. I object to leave this house as it is ancestral property on my mother's side and has been transferred in the name of my late husband, and I claim to remain in the house on the above grounds.

B. Natha Kumberumall Chetty states:- I am a tenant of the mother of the Defendants paying a monthly rent of Rupees 7 for one room upstairs & use of Cooking room downstairs. I have given no agreement to the woman. I came here about 2 months ago. I am not related to any of the Defendants. I have no fixed period as to how long I shall remain.
