3rd.—Ready Money.—The lots to be paid for before delivery, and removed by the purchasers at their own expense and risk. A deposit to be paid by all strangers at the time of sale immediately after a lot is knocked down to them as well as by any others if demanded, and, in case of refusal, the lot shall be re-sold at the risk (in the event of any loss) of the party so refusing.

4th.—Interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum to be charged on the amount of purchase from date of sale, or when credit is allowed by previous arrangement, after the expiry of the term of credit.

5th.—Lots to be taken with all faults and errors of description.

6th.—All goods to be at the risk of the purchaser from the time of sale, and such as remain unremoved after five days may at the option of the Auctioneers, be re-sold either by public or private sale, the first purchaser to be held liable for any loss arising from such re-sale, but to forfeit any advantage together with the Auctioneers' Commission.

N. B.—To avoid inconvenience and dispute through servants or others bidding for articles for gentlemen, the Auctioneers will be under the necessity of refusing such bids, unless sufficient authority is produced at the time of sale.
