Date of Decree 29th July 1904.

The sales of properties comprised in Lots Nos: 1 & 2 advertised for the 12th & 13th September 1906 respectively were adjourned to the 17th and 19th days of September 1906 respectively, for want of bidders. The sales of Lots Nos: III and IV advertised for the 14th September 1906 were postponed at the request of the Plaintiff's Vakil, who stated in his letter of the 14th September 1906, that the Plaintiff had applied to the Court for permission to bid for an order to sell the properties free from incumbrances. The adjourned sale of Lot No: 1 held on the 17th September 1906 was stopped as the bids made then were far below the reserve price and the adjourned sale of Lot No: 2 was also stopped, at the request of the said Plaintiff's Vakil.

In accordance with a fresh proclamation issued herein the properties comprised in Lots Nos: 1 and 2 were advertised for sale on 28th & 29th January 1907 and those of Lots nos: 3 & 4 were advertised for 30th January 1907. By an order of Court made by the Honourable Mr Justice Boddam dated 22-1-07 leave was given to the Plaintiff to bid once for each of the Lots Nos: 1, 2, 3 & 4 for a sum not less than Rs 1300, 500, 1000 & 800 respectively and in the event of her becoming the purchaser of all the said properties to enter up satisfaction in full of the decree amount. At the sales held on the 28th, 29th & 30th January 1907 the Plaintiff was allowed to bid once at the reserve prices and she being the highest bidder in each case the properties comprised in lots 1, 2, 3 & 4 of the proclamation of sale herein were knocked down to her for Rs 1300, 500, 1000 & 800 respectively. The agreements executed by her and her receipts are hereunto annexed. The Plaintiff has paid Rs 59-8-6 towards the expenses of sales herein. Dated this 5th day of February 1907.

P. M. Iswariah Chetty } .... Defendants.

PROCLAMATION OF SALE.

WHEREAS by a decree made in the above suit and dated the 4th day of April 1918, the abovenamed Defendants were ordered to pay to the above-named Plaintiff the sum of Rs. 6218-5-4 and Rs. 127-0-0 for costs of suit, making in all the sum of Rs. 6345-5-4, together with interest thereon at the rate of Rs. 6 per cent. per annum from the said day until realisation, and by a warrant for sale dated the 19th day of March 1919, issued under order dated the 11th day of February 1919, the immoveable property described in the schedule hereto was ordered to be sold by me in satisfaction of the said decree; And whereas on the 28th and 29th days of April 1919 (the dates fixed for sale) there will be due thereunder the sum of Rs. 6335-6-4 for principal and interest, up to 4th April 1918, together with Rs. 45-0-0 and Rs. 50-0-0 for costs of attachment and of sale, and whereas the sale of lot No. 2 is subject to the rights of Seshachellam Chetty&Co., who claims under a mortgage dated the 14th day of February 1918 executed in favour of the said Seshachellam Chetty & Co., by J. Ramanjulu Chetty to secure the repayment of a sum of Rs. 10,000 with interest at the rate of 9¾ per cent per annum and registered etc., to be entitled to repayment of a sum of Rs. 10,000 with interest thereon from the 14th day of February 1918 and whereas the sale of Lot No. 1 is subject to the rights of Devidan Sowcar and Rekchand Sowcar who claim under 2 mortgages dated 28—12—1913 and 23—8—1915 for Rs. 1600-0-0 and Rs. 1000-0-0 carrying interest at 15 per cent and 12 per cent respectively to be entitled to the repayment of the said sums and interest thereon from the respective dates of the mortgages,

And whereas it is represented by the decree-holder that he caused search to be made in the office of the Registrar of Assurance of Madras from the 1st day of January 1906 to 22nd day of May 1918 for lot 1 and from the 1st day of January 1906 to 16th day of July 1918 and that the documents specified in the fifth column of the schedule hereto were found to have been registered in respect of the several lots opposite to which the same are set, and that the said lots are severally subject to the payments and claims set opposite thereto respectively in the fifth column of the same schedule. I hereby notify that I shall sell the said properties by public auction at the respective premises of the lots, subject to the conditions of sale hereunder in the lots and at the times in the same schedule specified. Copies of this proclamation may be had gratis of the Sheriff of Madras, High Court, Madras.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The conditions prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply to this sale.

2. The highest bidder for each lot shall be the purchaser, and, if any dispute arise as to any bidding, the lot shall be put up again. There will be a reserve price for each lot, and the decree-holder shall not be at liberty to bid. No person shall advance a less sum at each bidding than shall be named by the Sheriff on puting up the lot, and no bidding shall be retracted.

3. Each purchaser shall, immediately after the sale to him, pay to the Sheriff Rs. 25 per cent. of his purchase money and sign the agreement below, and shall pay the residue of the purchase money to the Sheriff before 3 p. m. on or before the 15th day after sale to him.

4. Lot No. 1 is sold subject to the mortgages dated 20—12—1913 and 23—8—1915 above referred to and to all claims of Devidan Sowcar and Rekchand Sowcar thereunder. Lot No. 2 is sold subject to the mortgage dated the 14th day of February 1918 above referred to and to all claims and rights of the said Seshachellam Chetty & Co., thereunder.

5. The properties are believed, and should be taken to be correctly described as to quantity and otherwise, and any omission or mis-statement in this proclamation shall not annul the sale, or be a ground for any compensation on either side.

6. Such of the documents of title in the possession of the decree-holder as relate exclusively to any lot will be delivered to the purchaser of the lot or such other person as the Court may determine.

7. The Certificate of the Registrar of Assurances of the result of the above search, and a copy of the decree under which the property is sold may be inspected at the Office of the Sheriff of Madras, High Court, Madras on any day before the sale between the hours of 11 A. M. and 5 P. M. and whether the purchaser shall have inspected the same or not, he shall be considered, by bidding at the sale, to have waived all objections appearing on the face thereof.

8 The further hearing of the above suit is adjourned to Monday the 21st day of July 1919, when the sale will come before the Court for confirmation. On such day, any purchaser may make any objection to the sale, of which he shall have given not less than five days' previous notice in writing to the parties to the suit. Any objection not so made shall be considered as waived, and, if no objection be so made, the title shall be considered as accepted, and the sale as valid in all respects, and in this respect time shall be deemed of the essence of the contract.

9. Each purchaser shall before the said 21st day of July 1919, bring into Court two copies of a Certificate of the sale of the lot purchased by him for the approval and signature of the Registrar, one of such copies shall bear the stamp prescribed by the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, Schedule I, Article 18, of which the cost shall be borne by the purchaser.

10. If any purchaser fail to comply with any of these conditions, his deposit may, if the Court thinks fit, after defraying the expenses of the sale be forfeited to Government and the lot or lots sold to him shall be resold and such purchaser shall be liable for the deficiency (if any) on such re-sale, together with all expenses attending the same.
