In paying the amount of this Fine.

I must remark that I was present in Court within a few minutes after the Grand Jury were sworn and that I explained to the Bench that the delay that had occurred in my arrival was involuntary on my part and accidental. as substantially the same excuse on the part of another Gentleman was readily admitted by the Court on that Occasion and the leniency imposed on him remitted. I had reason to expect the same Consideration would have been extended to me and I conceive that I have cause to complain of a want of Courtesy on the part of

of the Court in Ordering the penalty to be enforced against me.
