No 4 Tellicherry Sessions Court

Proceedings of the Sessions Court of Tellicherry 23d January 1873.

Dated 23d January 1873

Read distress Warrant No 51 issued from this Court to the Assistant Superintendent of Police Malabar authorizing him to make distress by seizure of any moveable property belonging to One S. Veerasamy Pillay Convicted in Session Calse No 38 of 1872 on the file of this Court and sentenced to pay a fine of Two thousand Rupees.

Read also the endorsement on the aforesaid Warrant by the Assistant Superintendent of Police forwarding the same for execution to the Government Solicitor Madras with reference to the letters of this Court No 100.

Read also the order of the High Court on the back of the said Warrant directing the Sheriff of Madras to execute the same.

Read also letter of the Deputy Sheriff Madras dated 16th instant No 186 the assistant Superintendent of Police returning the aforesaid Warrant unexecuted on the ground that the time limited thereiw for execution had expired before its receipt by him.

The Sessions Judge finds that the Deputy Sheriff had misconstrued the warrant in that he says that the time limited for execution has expired. The warrant does not order the seizure to be made within the 5th November as suppposed by the Sheriff but limits the property seized to be sold after that date. The warrant is therefore returned to the assistant superintendent for execution.
