Sir,

For the reasons stated in my letter of January 15th 1848 Mr. Cunningham, Head Clerk in my Office was not required to attend as a Petty Juror at the Sessions which commenced on the 17th of that month and I supposed would never again be included in the list of Petty Juror however as I find such is not the case, but he will very probably be summoned to attend at the approaching Session, I have the honor to State for the consideration of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, that since the Year 1839 I discharged the duties of Principal Medical Officer in the Southern Cape of Good Hope and Ceylon and in none of those Commands was the performance of the duties of My Office interrupted at any time by the Summoning of the Head Clerk as a Petty Juror, and that should he be taken away for that purpose in Consequence of the inefficiency of the native Clerks in this Office, it will not be in my power to carry on the duties of Her Majesty's Medical Department either with Satisfaction to myself or advantage to the Service -

To

The Chief Secretary

to Government

Fort St. George

Sir,

With reference to my letter of the 31st ultimo, communicating the Circumstance of a female Prisoner named Gunjah Sulchoomoo, otherwise Vencammah, otherwise Ramanjamah, having effected her escape from A. M. Gaol on the morning of the 31st ultimo, I have the honor to state that the portion of the wall, through which She opened herself a passage, was found on inspection to be composed of brick set in mud in lieu of Chunam, of which but a slight exterior Coating is applied, giving the brick-work which is 1½ foot in thickness an appearance of Strength and Solidity which it does not possess.

2 The instrument which Gunjah Sulchoomoo used in removing the bricks, a small piece of round iron bar tapered to a point at one end, was left behind after her work was accomplished; but I have been unable to discover how it was conveyed to her. It would be however a matter of no difficulty for a person to throw such an article over the wall after dark, and as all parcels are strictly examined at the outer gate before being admitted into the Gaol, I am inclined to believe that this is the mode in which it was supplied.

3 Although the insecure state of the Walls enabled this Prisoner to accomplish her escape with very little noise, I cannot but attach considerable blame to the Jemedar who was on duty from 8 Oclock on the night of the 30th till 5 on the morning of the 31st ultimo, his duty was to visit the several Posts at uncertain periods during the night yet notwithstanding he did this, as appears from the testimony of certain Peons, who however seem to have been as neglectful as himself, the breach through the wall was made within 33⅓ yards of the main Gate, under which he sits when not going his rounds. He has consequently been dismissed, a punishment which has also been awarded to the three Peons who were on guard nearest the place from 12 till 2, from 2 till 4 and from 4 till 6 and who, if they had been on the alert could not have avoided hearing the noise made during the process of excavation.

4 It may be asked why a Prisoner under Sentence of Transportation should be placed between the two walls of the Prison. In reply I beg to refer to my letter of the 10th February last in which I explained, as a reason for urging the necessity of a small Military Guard, to be attached to the Gaol, that a number of Prisoners are therein secured in excess of what the establishment of Peons was calculated to take charge of, and whose legitimate place of Confinement would be the Penitentiary when completed. These are mostly desperate Characters

Sentenced

Sentenced to hard labor on the Roads, and as a means of Securing them efficiently apart from the others they are placed in the ward built for the use of the women, who are as a temporary measure removed to the building between the walls which they now occupy.

5 The painful task of furnishing a full account of the fact connected with the late escape having been accomplished, it now becomes my duty once more respectfully to urge on the Government the removal of the Guard of Sepoys as established prior to 1844 During the Night, there are Seven Peon Guards on debtor and 4 on the Criminal Side, and these absorb the whole force of Peons, 34 in number without leaving any available for duty on the outside. In the instance under notice had a Sentry been Stationed without the walls, the fugitive could not possibly have escaped, nor would an opportunity have occurred of providing her with the means of forcing her passage in the manner supposed. Even if the Establishment of Peons would permit of an extra Guard being furnished to patrol the exterior of the building, the habit of a Soldier render him or so much more efficient Sentinel that it would still be advisable as a precautionary measure to place one there. Under all circumstances therefore, and bearing in view the moral effect that a Military Guard would exercise over the minds of the Prisoners, I trust that the Government will be pleased to take into their favorable Considera-tion the request I urged in my former letter of the 10th February.

6 In Conclusion I beg to solicit that a Survey may be ordered to be held on the walls of the Gaol with the view of ascertaining what portion requires renewing or Strengthening the State of the one lately pierced clearly indicating that they are not all of that Solidity which they ought to be.

I have the honor to be

P1 The Right Honorable the Governor in Council has again had under his consideration the Report of the Sheriff on the escape of the female Prisoner Gungah Lutchoomoo under sentence of transportation from H. M. Grand Gaol, and his application for a Military Guard, in connection with the Report furnished by the Chief Magistrate and Superintendent of Police, and is constrained to observe that the escape appears to him to have been the result of gross negligence, and that the explanation of that event afforded by the Sheriff in his letter of the 5th August last is wholly unsatisfactory. It does not appear that there was any necessity for removing the prisoner from the body of the prison to a place so unfit as that in which she was lodged, from which escape was easy, and there must have been great carelessness at least in not keeping a proper watch over her while she was allowed to remain there.

2 The Governor in Council is satisfied that the Gaol is sufficiently safe if the interior economy of it be properly arranged and ordinary precautions adopted, and he sees nothing in the event now under consideration to prove the necessity of a Military Guard. It is possible that an increase to the strength of the guard may be requisite, but it would seem that it may be quite effective composed as at present of Peons under a European Gaoler and a Deputy with a proper complement of petty Officers, provided the men be properly selected and kept under due discipline. The Governor in Council sees great reason to be dissatisfied with the present constitution of the Gaol Guard, and it occurs to him that the best way of reforming it is to incorporate the whole Establishment of Peons allowed for the Gaol with the General Police Force under the Chief Magistrate, providing that the necessary guard for the Gaol shall be supplied from that Force, in the same manner that a Military guard would be supplied from the Garrison, to be increased or diminished, within certain limits, with reference to the number of Prisoners to be guarded. The Chief Magistrate should relieve a portion of the guard Monthly, putting in fresh men and recalling those relieved to perform the ordinary duties of Police men, and he would of course give immediate attention to the suggestion of the Sheriff for the removal of individuals whose conduct is unsatisfactory to him, and subject them to punishment if necessary. It is desirable that only such men of the present Gaol Establishment as are unfit for any duties of Police should be discharged absolutely, but with this caution the Governor in Council would leave the arrangement contemplated to be carried carried into effect at the discretion of the Chief Magistrate with full authority to discharge all whom he deems to be incompetent for the Service. To this subject Mr. Elliot will give his attention in communication with the Sheriff as early as possible after his return to his duty.

3 The Governor in Council approves of the proposition to furnish the Gaolers with 10 or 12 Carbines, a few pistols and a few swords to answer in cases of emergency and also that the Sentries between walls at nights should carry swords, and will instruct the Military Board to meet the requisitions to that effect which may be made by the Sheriff.

4 The Military Board will be furnished with the correspondence entered in the Margin and instructed to cause a Survey to be made of the Grand Gaol and submit a report and if necessary an Estimate for the work required to render the outer wall secure.

Paras 1. 2 and 6 of Sheriff's letter d/ 5th August 1848.
Para 8 of Chief Magistrates letter

5 The Sheriff and through him the Gaoler will be apprized of the sentiments of Government respecting the escape of the Convict Gungah Lutchooma, and the Governor in Council desires that the latter may be warned that his retention of Office will depend on the reports which Government may receive of his future attention to his duties.

The Deputy Adjutant General

Sir,

Fort St. George,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 15th Instant No. 202, with an Extract of a letter from the Office dated 18th April 1844 No. 95520/12. as also a Copy of the Order for the Commitment to the then Sheriff's Custody of Private John Jones of H. M. 51st Regiment enclosed.

I have the honor with reference thereto to State that I will hold the Prisoner Jones in readiness to be given in Charge of your Escort at the hour of 4 o'Clock in the afternoon of the 23d. day of March instant, as suggested in your said Letter.

I beg to remark that my reasons for naming the morning of the 24th as the time for liberating the Prisoner were.

Firstly. That as the Committing Order directs the Sheriff to keep (the Prisoner) in Confinement until the Expiration of his Imprisonment I had doubts of the propriety of liberating him one hour before that time.

Secondly That as the time of Imprisonment expires at the hour of 12 o'Clock at night when according to the Rules for the Government of Her Majesty's Gaol no ingress or egress is permitted I conceived in Conformity with the practice hitherto observed that the proper time to release him was on the following morning.

I have the honor to State further for your information that the Prisoner Jones has been for some time Confined to the Gaol Hospital where he has been undergoing treatment for some rheumatic affection which will render his removal by escort by Palanquin a matter of some difficulty

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of this days date with the letter from the Surgeon in charge of the Jails annexed.— Any suggestion of the Medical Officer on the treatment of the Prisoners which can effect their health will meet with immediate attention. Two Prisoners under sentence of hard labor who had been working on the South Beach road near Triplicane were last night attacked with Cholera in the Justices Jail and it appears clear that all the cases which have occurred in the various Jails have been brought in by individuals, who had been abroad to labor;— to diminish therefore the risk of injecting the various Jails I propose to remove all Prisoners under sentence of hard labor to the House of correction and with your permission I will take the responsibility of receiving the Prisoners Confined in M. Jail under sentence of hard labor amounting this day to 26 in number, if you will be pleased under the present emergency to order the transfer.

In reply to Your letter No. 132 of Yesterday's date to my address, I have the honor to state that I quite approve of Your suggestion to remove all the Prisoners under sentence of hard labour to the House of Correction, as this measure will tend to improve the atmosphere of the other Jails, without, I should believe, Exposing the Prisoners so removed to any evils arising from over crowding in the House of Correction. I would beg to propose also that an account of the great heat of the weather, and with a view of husbanding the Prisoner's strength, a somewhat longer interval of relaxation in the middle of the day be allowed the working Prisoners, say from 11 o'Clock until 2 or 3, instead of as at present, only from 12 to 1, and that all localities where Cholera is known to prevail, or where the existence of malaria may be presumed, from whatever cause, should be avoided as working places. I would also beg to recommend that the practice of eating cold rice and other stale food on the return of the Prisoners in the evening to the Jail which I understand has prevailed more or less, should be strictly prohibited at all times. The adoption of some of the above measures might be supposed to have a cheering tendency on the Prisoners spirits which I consider as highly important. Should this opportunity of mentioning that I have directed careful enquiries to be made daily, of all who may have Experienced since the former examination, any deviation from their usual health, especially as to indigestion or disorder of the bowels and should any such be found, the Exhibition of Medicine to them is immediately had recourse to.

Sir

At the beginning of this week a few cases of Cholera (some attended with fatal results) appeared amongst the prisoners in H. M. Gaol, sentenced to hard labour and employed on the roads under the Superintendence of the Chief Magistrate of Police. I accordingly put myself into communication with that officer with a view of concerting such measures as should prevent as far as possible the introduction of Cholera into the Gaol which was present in some what a crowded state. The Chief Magistrate offered to furnish accommodation for the above mentioned Prisoners in the House of Correction in which there was ample room for them and I thought it my duty to avail myself without delay of his offer and I have now the honor to report that the prisoners named in the enclosed list were transfered to his Custody on the 1st Instant,

I have mentioned the circumstances to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court who made no objection to the course I have taken and I have now the honor to submit it for the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.—

Sir

With reference to my letter of the 23d Ultimo and your reply thereto of the same date, I have the honor to inform you that at present I have no means of carrying out the Sentences passed upon the Mariners therein referred to and it had occurred to me that the only description of employment procurable will be that usually adopted in the House of Industry, Viz.t picking Oakum, and for this purpose I will thank you to inform me what quantity of rough material will be sufficient to keep one man fully employed during the day and with your permission I would suggest that on each Monday morning a sufficient quantity of rough material may be furnished from the House of Industry to each of the Prisoners and that on each Saturday evening the same be returned to the House of Industry properly cleansed and in a fit state to undergo any further process you may deem requisite.

From the Sheriff of Madras
To The Secretary to Government in the Judicial Departt.

Sir

I have the honor to call your attention to a defect in Act No. VIII of 1841 (the Interpleader act) which I wish to respectfully submit to the consideration of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council as calling for amendment.

By Section 6th where "Goods and Chattles" are seized in execution by the Sheriff and disputes as to the ownership arise he is empowered to apply to the Court and to force the parties to interplead but under the terms "Goods and Chattles" it is considered by the Court that Houses and Lands are not comprised and as in the very great majority of Cases in Madras the objects seized are "Houses and Lands" the Sheriff is deprived of the benefit of the Act and obliged to resort to the objectionable expedient of taking an Indemnity from the party who can best afford to give it. The mischief of such a state of things is obvious and as it is presumed that no valid argument can be raised against giving the Sheriff relief in the case of disputes concerning Houses and Lands as well as concerning other property it is submitted that the matter should be brought under the consideration of the Legislative Council for India.

To make however any alteration effective it ought also to be provided that the Sheriff's Costs (when no blame attached to him of

of obtaining the benefit of the Interpleader act should be costs in the cause between the contending parties and this for two reasons

1st. The Costs of the Sheriff so obliged to employ legal assistance would be so great as to render the Office not worth holding and even in case of a professional man holding the Office who by doing his own business would save the greater part of the expence the payment of the mere Court fees would be a very serious deduction from his income would deter him from having recourse to the Interpleader Act and force him to the objectionable course of taking an Indemnity.

2d. From the uncertainty of the Hindoo Law with respect to the legal rights of members of an undivided family and more especially from the very general dishonesty of Defts it invariably happens that on a seizure being made by the Sheriff claims (generally of a fictitious nature) to the property seized are forthwith made and the Sheriff is threatened with an action for trespass unless he withdraws from his seizure.

At present it is the easiest thing possible to find persons to make such fraudulent claims but if such persons were made liable to pay the costs of the Sheriff obtaining an Interpleader Order it is conceived that an effectual stop would be put to the mischievous practice above mentioned and that claims not being of a bona fide nature would be but seldom advanced.

It is true that in England the Judges have made it a rule not to give the Sheriff his Costs on the ground of the act being so great a boon to him but it is conceived that the reasoning of the Judges in England does not apply in this country as from the constant practice of Defts causing fraudulent claims to property seized to be made the act without payment of his costs would not be a boon to the Sheriff and the necessity here for putting a stop to fraudulent claims does not exist in England.

Sir

With reference to my letter of the 23d Ultimo and your reply thereto of the same date, I have the honor to inform you that at present I have no means of carrying out the Sentences passed upon the Mariners therein referred to and it had occurred to me that the only description of employment procurable will be that usually adopted in the House of Industry, Viz.t picking Oakum, and for this purpose I will thank you to inform me what quantity of rough material will be sufficient to keep one man fully employed during the day and with your permission I would suggest that on each Monday morning a sufficient quantity of rough material may be furnished from the House of Industry to each of the Prisoners and that on each Saturday evening the same be returned to the House of Industry properly cleansed and in a fit state to undergo any further process you may deem requisite.

Sir

I have the honor to call your attention to a defect in Act No. VIII of 1841 (the Interpleader act) which I wish to respectfully submit to the consideration of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council as calling for amendment.

By Section 6th where "Goods and Chattles" are seized in execution by the Sheriff and disputes as to the ownership arise he is empowered to apply to the Court and to force the parties to interplead but under the terms "Goods and Chattles" it is considered by the Court that Houses and Lands are not comprised and as in the very great majority of Cases in Madras the objects seized are "Houses and Lands" the Sheriff is deprived of the benefit of the Act and obliged to resort to the objectionable expedient of taking an Indemnity from the party who can best afford to give it. The mischief of such a state of things is obvious and as it is presumed that no valid argument can be raised against giving the Sheriff relief in the case of disputes concerning Houses and Lands as well as concerning other property it is submitted that the matter should be brought under the consideration of the Legislative Council for India.

To make however any alteration effective it ought also to be provided that the Sheriff's Costs (when no blame attached to him of
