The Sudder Court resume the consideration of the case of Boyana Appeal continued to this by their Sentence of the 10th Decr last who was released by the then Judge of Circuit previously to the receipt of the final sentence

As it appears to the Sudder Court that the error of this proceeding was caused by the ignorance of the Mufti in respect to the Evidence given on the trial - and that the want of knowledge of the Law constrained the Judge on Circuit in his determination to be guided by the Futwah of the Native Officer - And as it also appears to the Sudder Court that the Comprehension & punishment of a Robbery committed as Boyana Appeal is - might have a dangerous effect on the minds of the natives disposed to Deeds of the same nature that an increased Punishment be granted to the said Boyana Appeal — and that the Appellee Do

From the 2d Judge of Circuit in the South Division - respecting the confinements of Coonjah Manikar

Here enter B

The Sudder Court having consid the subject referred on 28th January Holt the proceedings against Coonja Manikar were from the first illegal — they therefore direct his release on security for his future good conduct as prescribed by himself — any further security being totally unnecessary — as the Court will ever take the power of redressing such grievances as the Commercial Servants may be able to establish against him

In respect to the conduct of the Magistrate towards Coonja Manikar on person as stated in his letter 4th March 1806. of the 28th January — the Sudder Court the necessity they are under of giving it their total disapprobation — acquitted of the charges preferred against him — by the Judge on Circuit and confined more on the discretionary power of the Magistrate during fourteen months — than for any crime substantiated against him — the Sudder Court view the severity of the Magistrate as an aggravation of punishment on the person as ever incompatible with the dignity of office, as with respect, towards himself

Ordered that a Extract of the above be sent to the Judge on Circuit to be by him transmitted to the Magistrate on the Johnaway of Mainpoor — and that the Four Judge be by precept required to see the orders of the Sudder Court duly executed and that he do report the same for their information within ten days from

The Sudder Court having considered the subjects referred to proceed to record their opinion

It appears that on the attack of Cranganore a Regiment of the Raja of Cochin's Army encamped at the Cranganore Pagoda — was forced by the order of the Rajah of Cranganore to flight, and from the effects of the punishment — he afterwards died —

The Rajah admitted the fact but pleaded exemption from the Jurisdiction — as the commanded Cranganore — and collected the Regt.

13th May 1806 — for the Cochin Rajah — and as such had not been hitherto prohibited by the Company's Government on the case being brought before the Second Judge of Malabar — he doubted as to the jurisdiction of the Court over the accused, and referred the question to the Sudder Foujdary Adawlut — as to the question — whether the Rajah of Cochin is to be considered in the nature of an inferior dependant Prince — or for as relates to the exercise of a jurisdiction over the inhabitants of his own country It appears by the fourth article of the treaty entered into by the Madras Government with the Rajah in June 1791 — that he agreed to become tributary to the Company under certain conditions — and by the seventh article it is stipulated that the Rajah shall exercise a complete and uncontrouled authority over the aforementioned Possessions under the acknowledged sovereignty of the Honble English Company" —

Here it appears clear to the Lascar Court — on general principles — that all the payments of tribute to a foreign power does in some degree diminish the dignity of a State — from it being a confession of its weakness — yet it suffers the sovereignty to subsist entire — the Exercise of a complete and unconfined authority over his subjects as granted by the treaty can rightly not deny else but jurisdiction — Indeed the very circumstance of a formal treaty with him as an acknowledgement of his jurisprudence — and of any one supposed unwilling to part with his privileges or rights — the Rajah cannot be supposed to have given up more than is expressly stipulated in the treaty —

13th May 1806.

The second point in Question arises when the case of a subjects of the Rajah of Travancore being confined for a Burglary committed by them within Rajahs County and proposes that he should be delivered up, with a request to the Rajah that the Culprit may be exempt from Torture, or from Capital punishments — But as the Court has no right to take cognizance of the case so neither does there exist any right to suggest to the Rajah — what is proper for him to do in regard to his own Subjects — It does not follow that because a punishment — might not be proper under our Laws — it would not be so under a different one — as applied to a different State of society 13th May 1806.

It is necessary to remark here that the term Burglary is a description of an offence peculiar to the English Law — and as such term has not been adopted in our code — its use in which offence frequent in the Reports of the different judges is highly exceptionable — — Every Law has Terms - Definitions - or Technical Descriptions of things peculiar to itself - and the words of a foreign Law are never to be adopted — the Malabar Code is our criminal Law unless when altered by Government and when terms are necessary to be used they should be taken from the — But it would be more proper for the judges to speak and write in plain Language - until the knowledge of Jurisprudence is more advanced & legal definitions are generally read to the Jurymen —

Letter
From the Dy Judge of Circuit in the Centre Division — with Calendar of Prisoners communicated by the Magistrate in the Jillah of Midnapore

(Here enter No 1)

The Acting Register lays before the Court the following

Letter
From the Dy Judge Provincial Court of Western Division - with enclosure from the Magistrate in the Southern Division of Cuttack - that the execution of Baloo Nagoo has been suspended

The Court having attentively considered the subject referred, are of opinion, that under the circum= =stances of doubt, stated in the enclosed letter from the Magis= in the Zilla of South Canara, r =specting the extent of his jurisdic= that Gentleman was justified not executing the sentence of dea passed upon the Prisoners Bal and Nayea tried in the first Se of A. D. 1805, and commanded warrant of the Judge, dated July last.

But the Court observe Mr. Strachey fearing the late division of jurisdiction in th Province of Canara might giv to some uncertainty, and the difficulties tending to prevent Law from taking it's course, m result therefrom, with commen anxiety to provide against ev contingency, was careful to a his warrant, as well to the Pri Collector & Acting Magistrate in the Province of Canara as to the Magis= =trates in the different divisions; and it does not appear that any change of the Magistrate's depart= =ment could have taken place between the date of the Judge's warrant and the day on which Mr. Keate took the oaths of office.

And the Court further ob= =serve, on reference to the record of trial No. 11. of Nayoo and ten others, that the authority of the present Magistrate in the Zillah of South Canara cannot be in any wise considered as extending to the case, seeing that the Prisoners were committed by Mr. Read, Acting Magistrate in the distinct Zillah of North Canara, and the trial was held at the Sessions of gaol-de= =livery in that Zillah in the first Session A. D. 1805.

Hence it appears to the Court that no alteration had place as to the person of the Officer; and that the execution of the Prisoners Balao & Nagee should have been done as befo but that the execution has not ta place in consequence of an omis on the part of Mr. Read, the Ass Magistrate, for which no cau has been by him assigned.

Ordered therefore that Second Judge of the Provincial Co in the Western Division be instru to call upon the Principal Collec and Acting Magistrate in Cour for a full explanation of the gro on which he refused compliance with the warrant of the Judge Circuit aforesaid; and that he transmit the same for the info of the Sudr Uddalut, in order th the Court may be enabled to judg the motives, under the influen of which Mr. Read appears to them to have incurred the responsibility of a serious and reprehensible neglect of duty.

And it is further Ordered that the Second Judge do cause immediate execution of the sentence of death passed on the Prisoners Balao and Nagea aforesaid.

Ordered that extract of the above be sent to Mr. Strachey, with precept requiring conformity to it's exigence -

Before the 2d Judge of the Provincial Court in the Southern Division at the Close of the 1st Sessions of Circuit 1805 2 September 1806.

The Court having maturely considered the several points submitted to their attention in the Report before them —

Ordered that the Acting Register do communicate to the Second Judge, their approbation as well of the strict conformity with the Regulations in which his report has been prepared, as of the active zeal that has distinguished the discharge of his duties on Circuit.

2d September 1806.

Calendar enclosed in the above letter be returned to the Judge of Circuit in the Southern Division and that it's irregularity, as well under the Regulations, as under the instructions contained in the Register's letter of 30th September 1803, be duly noticed for his information.

The Court observe that the enclosure referred to is stated by the Judge to be the Calendar of Prisoners committed or held to bail by the Acting Magistrate of the Zillah of Coimbatoor; but the signature of the Acting Magistrate is in support of the assertion. But the Court are not aware of any authority under which the Acting Magistrate may have deemed sanctioning the adoption

2/F.C.
Sept. 2d 1806

a form for the Calendar differing from that noted in Sect. XIII. Regulation VIII. A.D. 1802; or justifying the introduction of matter in the Calendar so entirely unconnected with the Magistrate's Department.

Hence the Court are under the necessity of concluding that the document in question is the form in addition to the Calendar required by the Register's letter abovementioned; and that from an omission on the part of the Judge on Circuit the copy of the Calendar actually delivered by the Acting Magistrate has not yet been transmitted — and the Court are the rather induced to hold this opinion under a conviction that the Judge is too well informed of the duties of his Office to refer the admission of an irregular document on the records of the Court. The informality and impropriety however, of the Acting Magistrate's signature to a statement, which on being designed to shew the progress of the Court in the trials noted on the Calendar, has exclusive reference to the Procedure of the Judge on Circuit – cannot pass unnoticed.

Ordered therefore that Casamajor be required to transmit with the least practicable delay and in strict attention to former lately sent for his guidance a true copy of the Calendar delivered to him by the Acting Magistrate in Coimbatoor the form in addition required by the Register's letter of 30th Septr 1803 aforesaid.

Letter –

From the Principal Collector in the Zillahs of Tanjore & Trichinopoly reporting a serious rising in the jail of the Zillah of ——— and enclosing a list of the killed & wounded –

(Here enter No. 8)

The Court commend the promptitude and decision with which the Peons conducted themselves on occasion of the attempt to escape stated to have been made by the Prisoners under confinement in the jail of the Zilla of ———; but are utterly at a loss to conjecture how the Prisoners could have found opportunity to get rid of their fetters, had the previous attention of the Peons to their duties been such as to entitle them to equal commendation for vigilance.

The Court have not the means of ascertaining the Zilla in the jail of which the rising is reported to have taken place

9. 9th September 1806.

The letter from the acting Magistrate in the Provinces of Tanjore and Trichinopoly is wholly unsatisfactory on the point, and appears to leave much to inference and conjecture: —

The Acting Registrar laid before the Court the following letter.

From the Magistrate in the Zillah of Madura — that the magistrate of Trichinopoly has refused to receive charge of certain Prisoners committed by him for trial for offences cognizable within the jurisdiction of the Zillah of Trichinopoly — (Here enter No 2)

The Court having considered the above reference, entirely approve as well of the refusal of the Magistrate of Trichinopoly to receive charge of the Prisoners made over to him by the Magistrate of Madura, as of the mode in which he thought proper to communicate his refusal to Mr.

Irwin.

The Prisoners are stated to have been apprehended and sent to the Magistrate of Madura, by the Revenue Servants of the Collector in the District of Ramgherry subsequently to the transfer of that district to the jurisdiction of the Court at Trichinopoly. It appears that the Magistrate of Madura went into an examination of the cases, as necessary to justify their commitment to jail, and that upon the Magistrate of Trichinopoly taking charge of the duties of his Office, they were made

23d September 1806.

made over to him as properly belonging to that Zillah, in consequence of the transfer of the district of Ramgherry to his jurisdiction.

The objections raised by Mr. Lathom to receive the Prisoner thus made over, appear to the Court to have originated in a erroneous construction of Mr. Irwin's motives for taking cognizance of the cases, as also of the grounds on which he had held the transfer to be necessa-

And the Court consider Mr. Laithan's reply to Mr. Irwin equally reprehensible and unjustifiable, as the assumption of a censorial power, wholly incompatible with his situation, and which under circumstances 25th September 1806.

The Court having matured considered the Proceedings of the Special Commission, the futwa of the Provincial Law Officer, and the remarks of the Cazee and Cotwal and Moofteer of the Toujdaree Adalut in illustration of the unsound interpretation of the law by the Cazee Moohummud Zuhee ood-deen — proceed to record their sentiments on the case.

From the confessions of each of the Prisoners, entered amongst the documents received from the Magistrate, it appears that they pleaded that they had surrendered themselves and arms in pursuance and under the faith of an amnesty proclaimed throughout the Province of Malabar. The Court observe that the assertion, although uncorroborated, yet stands on record; and that the confessions of the Prisoners form the only evidence of any sort against them.

Under these circumstances the well known maxim in the construction of evidence, that a Prisoner's confession shall be taken in whole, before he can be convicted on it; and the points which are favorable for him, shall receive as much weight as those that make against him, should seem to have pointed out to the Judges of the Special Commission the propriety of directing an enquiring into the truth of the alledged surrender of the Prisoners under the amnesty, previously to their entering upon the trial. But the Court do not find that any any attempt has been made by the Special Commission, either pending the trial or antecedently thereto, to ascertain the reality of a fact which if established would not only prove a complete indemnity for the parties, but also tend to render the Proceedings against them altogether illegal

The sentence pronounced by the First Judge on the Prisoner Mantandy Pacroo of Nadoomia Pidiakel Pakey, under an erroneous application of Clause IV. Regulation XV. A. D. 1803 to the case, appears to the Court equally unjustifiable and injudicious. The extreme loose and unsatisfactory manner in which the former confession of the Prisoners, unsupported by circumstantial or other evidence are attested in Court, and particularly that of Mantandy Pacroo, who was not personally known to either of the witnesses, might have induced the First Judge to hesitate in giving effect to a sentence of condemnation in any case referrible to the final judgment of a superior Court:— but a more correct and becoming attention to the provisions of Regulation XX. A. D. 1802, under which Mr. Stevens' powers to act have been derived, would not fail to have instructed that Gentleman, that the sentence of a Special Court, "whether of "acquittal or punishment, shall "in every instance be reported "with their proceedings to the "Court of Foujdaree Udalut, previously

"previously to carrying the same "into execution" — and further that the Foujdaree Udalut are not even competent to direct their sentences to be carried into execution, until they shall have received the sanction and ap=probation of the Government.

Ordered that the Proceedings on the above trial be returned a full investigation may be Surrender, stated to have been made by certain of the Prisoners

The Acting Register lays

From the Regr to the Provincial Court in the Southern Division — With extracts from the Courts Proceedings on a reference from the Judge & Magistrate of Ramnad respecting the Furnishing English translates of documents prepared for the Court of Circuit

(Here enter No. 5)

The Court on perusal of the above reference from the Provincial Court in the Southern Division, consider the matter thereof as strictly appertaining to the peculiar duty of the Judge on Circuit, on whose representation all abuses in the established forms of procedure for the administration of criminal justice are to be corrected, and any con=
the part of the Judges remaining at the Sudder Station "for the per= "formance of the duties of the "Court of Appeal", appears to them entirely unauthorised by the Regulations.

The Court are, however, willing to believe that the Provincial Court attaching consid= =erable importance to the question in their zeal for the public service lost sight of the irregula= =rity originating with the Magis= of Ramnad; and were induced to give the subject that consi= =deration, which in their opin= it seemed to demand.

Under this impression, a caution at the same time to rem= with the least possible delay an doubt, tending even remotely obstruct the operations of the Cou of Circuit, they have resolved to g early attention to the reference rather than delay the considera= by returning the papers for re= =mission thro' the regular channel.

In the view taken by the Court of the important functions of the Judges on Circuit, they are of opinion that every exertion on the part of the Magistrates in any shape calculated to facilitate the progress of the Circuit, is indis= =pensably necessary; and the Court wholly concur in opinion with the Provincial Court that the attention of the Magistrates to this point of duty is of primary importance.

The want of due attention to this especial object has already in one instance been marked by the censure of the Court; and the consequent un= =prepared state of the documents required to enable the Judge to commence the Sessions — admitted to be a sufficient reason for quitting the station without delivering the Jail.

The substantial utility of continuing the practice, that has hitherto obtained, of furnishing 25th October 1806

English translation of the document required to be delivered to the Judge on Circuit by Section XI. Regulation VI. A.D. 1802, obviously suggested by this view of the question, had led the Court to expect that a proposal, having for it's object innovation on established usage, would have been supported by arguments cogent and conclusive. The Court, however, observe that the whole reasoning of the Judge and Magistrate of Ramnad rests on the alledged delay in the progress of his other avocations, occasioned by a considerable portion of his time being occupied in making English translations — an argument to which the Court could not allow any weight, even were they disposed to admit the fact. Mr. Gregory's other avocations have superior claims to attention.

To enable the Judge to proceed with due effect on the Circuit, the Court hold that his knowledge of the documents, noted in the Section aforesaid, should be accurate and comprehensive, and they conceive that the degree of information required can only be derived from English translations, — which if not furnished by the Magistrates, must be prepared after the arrival of the Judge in the Zillah. His prolonged detention at the Station, thence resulting, must not only delay the progress of the Circuit, but also in the same degree interrupt the business of the Zillah Court, — for it appears from a letter, now before the Court, from Mr. Gregory, that his Court has been shut in consequence of the arrival of the Judge on Circuit at Ramnad, and it will not be in his pow to hold a Court until the Sessio shall be concluded.

The Court are further of opinion that if a due econo of time were observed by the Judge and Magistrate, his ordinary duties could not be subjected to any delay by pre -ing the English translat question; and they conceiv the labours of making them long as they shall be conside preceptory, should of right with the inferior officer.

The Court having attentively considered the above Letter from the Principal Collector and Acting Magistrate in the Province of Canara, as also his Letter of 4th Instant accompanying the preceding return Precept from the second Judge of the Provincial Court in the Western Division - are of opinion that Mr. Read was not justified in delegating to his Sub-Collector the authority delegated to him by the second Judge - to execute the Sentence of the Court on Trial No 11 of the Zillah of North Canara in the first Sessions of 1805. And the Court do not consider that Mr. Read's revenue duties can under any circumstances be of sufficient importance to supersede his

The Court resume consideration of trial No 2 aforesaid – read on 7th Instant.

The Court observe that the errors into which the Judge has been led in conducting the above trial, are with sufficient precision precision exposed in their Law Officers' remarks, and would have rested satisfied in directing the transmission of copy thereof for the information of the Judge with instructions to revise the Proceedings under the law as therein interpreted. They cannot however, omit to notice the sanction of the Judge, as conveyed by his signature, to the extraordinary future delivered by the Provincial Law Officer - condemning two persons, as pardoned concerned, merely on their depositions taken before the Magistrate as Witnesses, and declaring them liable to the censures of the law upon the commission of acts, for which they had never been arraigned.

The Court would willingly believe believe that the Judge on Circuit could not have concurred in a sentence so utterly at variance with every prescribed form and order; but as the Regulations direct the mode of proceeding in all cases, wherein the Court "disapproves of any part of the "proceedings held on a trial, or "of the future delivered by the "Law Officers," they are compelled to presume that if the Judge had disapproved thereof, he would in conformity with the Regulations have stated the grounds of his disapproval.

It appears to the Court from the letter of the Judge accompanying the trial that Nunjoonda Uniyen Pillay and Mooka Pillay, the two persons referred to, were considered by him to be practisconcerned: and the Court deem it necessary to state for Mr. Casamajor's information, that provided he saw sufficient reason to justify such conclusion, he should have directed the Magistrate to commit them for trial.

The Court take this opportunity of recording their entire disapprobation of the custom, which has been observed to obtain in the Court of Circuit for the Southern Division, of admitting witnesses to reduce their deposition to writing, to deliver them as evidence in open Court — a practice, which the Court cannot but consider as calculated rather to defeat the ends of justice, than to contribute to the thorough investigation of truth. The Acting Register lays
Letter —

From the Magistrate in the Zillah of Madura — for Authority to tender a Conditional Offer of pardon to Khansamy With a view to the Conviction of a gang of Robbers —

(Exhibit No. 1)

It appears to the Court that a robbery had been committed within the Jurisdiction of the Magistrate of Madura, in which, it is stated, there seemed little probability of detecting the Offenders; that at length one of them voluntarily came forward, expressing his readiness to confess every circumstance relating thereto upon a promise of full pardon being accorded to him; that the offer of a pardon was held out to the party upon condition of his making such confession as would lead to the complete conviction of his accomplices that the requisite information thereupon given, and the offenders were fully committed for trial by the Court of Circuit: —— and the Court perceive that the Magistrate applies for the Certificate specified in Section XX. Regulation VIII. A.D. 1802 trusting the Foujdaree Adalut will have no objection to grant the necessary instrument to secure the informer from the consequences at=tending the crime in which he was implicated.

In the above proceedings as recited in Mr. Strain's application the Court have again to notice the too little attention to the Regula-

The express and sole prerogative of the Government, of authorizing conditional offers of pardon, appears to have been encroached upon by the unprece=dented arrogation of a dispensing power on the part of the Magistrate; to the vesting of which in that description of Officer the Regulations are absolutely silent; and the Magistrate's premature application for the certificate noted in Section XX, assuming the fulfilment of the condition, on which such un=authorized pardon is stated to have been tendered, pronounces the conviction of the parties, who, until declared otherwise by a Court of competent jurisdiction, must on every principle of justice be presumed innocent, whatever may be the nature and amount of the evidence against them.

Heed, however, the regular proceeds of such Court led to the consummation of the conditions of the pardon, the Court could not feel themselves justified in confirming it.— The Regulations dictating in what manner conditional offers of pardon are to be granted; and they vest in the Court the power of confirmation on the conditions thereof being fulfilled; but the Court are not authorized to confirm any pardon the offer of which has not previously received the sanction of the Governor in Council.

Ordered that extract of the above be sent for Mr. Erwin's information, with the especial caution of the Court against acting upon any Regulation, which he shall not have studied with due deliberation and attention, and the provisions of which he may not accurately comprehend Ordered that the papers be transmitted to the Chief Secretary to the Government for the information of the Right Honble the Governor in Council.

To the Chief Secy to the Govt — Sent following letter (Per enter A)

The Acting Registrar lays before the Court the following letter —

From the 3d Judge on Circuit in the Southern Division — Acknowledging receipt of the Court's Precept returning trial No 2 of Trichinopoly for Revision With remarks on the Proceedings thereupon — (Per enter No 2) —

The Court cannot consider the explanation offered by the Judge on Circuit in reference to their remarks on his silence respecting the instructions delivered by the Provincial Law Officer on trial No 2 of the Zillah of Trichinopoly — to be in any wise satisfactory —

The Regulations in all

9th December 1806.

cases wherein they prescribe the mode of procedure, impose the necessity of a strict and full observance of all they require. They determine the line of duty, and they allow no latitude to the exercise of discretion. If the general tenor of the Regulations give room for the supposition, that their exigency is more clearly defined in some cases than in others, it appears to the Court that it may with least hazard be applied to their provisions for the continuance of a Judge on Circuit disapproving of any part of the Proceedings, or the future of the Law Officers. The terms in which the law is laid down, are positive and precise; however obvious the inference, he is directed to state the grounds of his disapproval in a separate letter; and tho' the particular point to which he objects may ~~[illegible]~~ be ~~[illegible]~~ calculated to arrest

attention, yet no exception from the general rule appears to warrant the omission of his sentiments on the subject.

The Court were well aware that the signature of the Judge was to the whole proceedings on the trial and not a particular sanction to the future — but it was also demonstrated that in sanctioning the whole, it sanctioned every part — and the Regulations required, not his sanction to such parts as he considered liable to objection, but a full exposition of the grounds of his particular or general disapproval.

Hence the Court were compelled to presume that if the Judge had disapproved thereof, he would in conformity with the Regulations have stated the grounds of his disapproval.

On reference to the letter of of the Judge accompanying the trial aforesaid, the Court observe that he states merely to have been deprived of the only likely chance of remedying the want of positive evidence by the objection of the Law Officer to the testimony of Nunjundalingumpillay and Mookapillay parties concerned. The mode of expression evidently led to the conclusion that the two persons referred to were by the Judge considered to be parties concerned; and the Court could have no reason to suppose that they were implicated only in the opinion of the Law Officer — on the contrary they had every reason to expect that the Judge would have stated his objection, provided he did not concur in such opinion. In either case it became his duty to direct the Magistrate to commit them for trial. The Regulations declare that the Judges of the Courts of Circuit shall be guided by their Law Officers in all questions on point of law, that may arise during the course of any trial. Had the Judge in conformity with the opinion of his Law Officer and the Regulation directed their commitment for trial, the parties would not have been exposed to condemnation with arraignment, nor would the defect of duty in the Judge have been so plainly shewn in the future of the Law Officers.

The Court consider the mode of taking the depositions of witnesses, as stated in the above letter to have been the custom in the Court of Circuit in the Southern Division — to be hardly less ob= =jectionable than that of which they recorded their disapprobation under date 28th October, and not better adapted for the test and investigation of truth. The Court do therefore direct that in all future examination of witnesses, the Court of Circuit shall be careful to draw out the whole of their evidence by proposing questions to the parties, which together with the answers thereto shall be entered in detail on the record of the trial.

The Judge requests the instructions of the Court, as to the propriety of desiring a Prisoner to explain the cause of any difference between his former confession, and the declaration made in Court; and appears to argue from general principles of English Law against the opinion on that point delivered by the Law Officers of the Foujdaree Adalut.

The Court have only to remind the Judge on Circuit, that the Courts of Criminal jurisdiction are regulated in their proceedings and sentences by the Mahomedan Law — which Law solely governed by it's own principles, is on the representation of the Judge subject to such exceptions and modifi= =cations, as are authorized by the Regulations: and the Regulations altho' they recognize the proba= =bility of that Law being repugnant to natural justice, yet inculcate the necessity of adherence to it's tenets — providing for all cases, in which it may appear to be against the Prisoner.

these Proceedings be sent for

From the A.g.M. Magistrate in the Zillah of Guntoor — that he has reappre=hended Mala Parpadoo, an old offender, and given orders for his com=finement & labouring on the public roads — had again rendered himself suspected; that the Police Officers employed on this occasion to apprehend him, experienced violent resistance in the execution of their duty; and that the Assistant to the Magistrate took upon himself under the provisions of Regulation XXXV A. D. 1802, to sentence the offender to confinement and Cabooning on the public roads, on the grounds that the ordinary punishments, which had been inflicted on several former occasions, would not avail to produce the desired effect of amendment in his conduct.

And the Court observing that the Assistant to the Magistrate trusts the Court will be satisfied as well that his decision has not been too rigorous, as of the necessity of securing the public from the depredations of so unprincipled a man.

From the above recital it would appear that the Assistant to the Magistrate considered the Offender to be a person of notorious bad character — and that in the measures adopted by him under that impression he had recourse to Section XXVIII. Regulation XXXV. A. D. 1802.

The Court cannot but consider the above proceeding of the Assistant to the Magistrate to be altogether illegal; and they are at a loss whether most to admire the misapplication of Regulation XXXV. A. D. 1802 to the case — or it's application under an apparent conviction that "from the wording of that Regulation" it was "confined in it's operation "simply and solely to the Gulla "of Caraugooly."

13th December 1806

The Court are not aware of any other Regulation, under which the Assistant to the Magistrate in the Zillah of Guntoor could act in that capacity, than Regulation VI. A.D. 1802: and the Court hold that under the provision of that Regulation it became his express duty to commit Mada Paupadoo for trial before the Court of Circuit.

Section IX of the Regulation aforesaid authorizes the Magistrate to try persons charged with petty thefts, and empowers them to inflict upon the offenders certain punishments to the extent therein specified. But when petty thefts shall have been committed by persons of notorious bad character, it restricts the authority of the Magistrates, and prescribes the necessity of a reference of all such cases to the Courts of Circuit.

Hence it appears to the Court that the Assistant to the Magistrate of Guntoor has erred not only in the misapplication of Regulation XXXV. A.D. 1802, but also - under Section IX. Regulation VI. A.D. 1802 - in the whole of his Proceedings held on the Prisoner.

In the former the Court recognize an attempt to extend his discretion beyond the limits prescribed to it by the Regulations: and in the latter a direct interference with the peculiar province of the Court of Circuit.

Ordered that extract of these Proceedings be transmitted to the Magistrate in the Zillah of Guntoor; by Precept requiring communication thereof to his Assistant — with instructions to observe in future a more scrupulous regard to the duties of his station.

The Acting Registrar laid before the Court the following letter from the Judge on Circuit in the Central Division, with the Minutes of the Gillah of Bellary.

From the 3d Judgeon Circuit in the Central Divn with trial No 14 of the Gillah of Bellary —

(Here enter No 8)

The irregular proceedings of the Judge in questioning the sentence of the Law on the above trial, as declared by the Law Officer, prevents the Court from proceeding to pass final judgment thereupon, and induces an apprehension that the notions entertained by the Judge on Circuit of the relative situations of himself and the Law Officer attached to the Court, is entirely incompatible with the nature of that Office.

It appears to the Court that

2/17. C.

Decr. 16th 1856.

that the first futwa of the Law Officer fully acquits the Prisoner of the whole charge laid in the indictment; and that the Judge dissatisfied therewith, proposed three several questions, with a view of drawing from the Moofties an opinion at variance with the futwa of acquittal first delivered.

The Court are not aware of any Regulation from which the Judge may have derived authority, either to oppose his opinion on points of law to that given by his Law Officer, or to demand a second futwa in case that first delivered shall have pronounced the acquittal of the Prisoner. And the tenor of the questions, thus irregularly proposed, leads the Court to conceive that the Judge considers the Law Officer to be in a State of subjection to his authority, rather than a person appointed to aid and assist him in performing the duties of the Circuit; to guide him on all questions on points of Mohummedan law that may arise during the course of any trial; and to expound and declare that Law by which under the Regulations all his Proceedings and Sentences are to be regulated.

The Court observe that the Judge on Circuit submits the conduct of the Moofties on this occasion for their animadversion as proceeding from an intentional disregard of strong and positive evidence; and enclosed a list of cases, in which his sentences have been either overruled, reversed or disapproved of on reference to the Foujdaree Adalut.

The matter contained in the above list is ~~altogether~~ irrelevant to the subject of the present reference, and wholly unconnected with the particular instance of alledged misconduct on the part of the Moofties, to which the Judge proposes to draw the especial attention of the Court: and it merely shews, what might have been expected, that the Provincial Law Officer is not so thoroughly versed in the Law, as the Cazee ool Coozzat and Moofties of the Foujdaree Adalut. The Court have, however, had occasion to observe that the interpretation of

of the law, as given in the fact was of the Moaftee attached to the Court of Circuit in the Centre Division, has been in general founded on principle, and that his very errors have themselves been calculated to discover a knowledge of the law.

On a general review of the evidence on the above trial the Court do not see reason to concur in opinion with the Judge, that the fact was offered as proof of the Moaftee's incantation thereto. They are on the contrary inclined to consider it as perfectly consistent with the law.

Ordered that the Proceedings on trial No. 14 of the Zillah of Bellary be returned to the Judge, for revision of so much much of the record thereof as contains the irregularity noted, and that the Judge be directed to retransmit the same, so revised and amended, with the least possible delay.

And it is further Ordered that Mr. George Read be at the same time called upon to explain for the information of the Court the cause of his neglect to send the report prescribed by Section XXXVII. Regulation VII. A. D. 1802, on his return from Circuit in the Second Session A. D. 1805.

Ordered that extract of these Proceedings be sent by Precept, requiring conformity to it's exigence.

Agreed to adopt the reasoning therein contained.

Ordered that the following extract be sent for the information of the Southern Provincial Court.

The letter of the Judges of the Provincial Court in the Southern Division, under date 27th Ultimo, shews them to have been called upon by the Officer Commanding the Division to act in the capacity of Justices of the Peace for the preservation of tranquillity in the city of Tichi=nopoly.

This letter is accompanied by one from the Officer Commanding the Station, their answer, and a subsequent recommendatory letter to the Local Magistrate.

The Court took into con=sideration the subject referred, viz^t. the application of the Officer Commanding, the refusal of the Judges to comply with that application, and their letter to the Local Magistrate.

The Court mindful of the terms under which the application was made, the answer given, and the reference made to the Superior Court, paped an opinion that a Justice of Peace was bound by oath to pay every attention to such complaints, as might be brought before him.

That they (the Court) were not aware of the Regulations of Government imposing a distinct line of duty from that given by the qualification, but that they considered it as adding to the Local power given by the Govern=ment — every efficiency, that could be obtained from the Act of Parliament, relating to the particular duty of Justices of the Peace.

That the letter of 22d. Nov.r 1803, had not the least relation to the subject before the Court - and that the Court were not a little astonished to observe the misap=plication of that letter to the points referred for their consi=deration.

In the above recital the Court had entire reference to the principle, of the parties called upon, acting, or not acting as Justices of the Peace, upon the application and under the English law; not to the detail causing the reference - upon that principle therefore they declared their opinion aforenoted; fully convinced that the law under which Justices of the Peace in this country are constituted would warrant it.

In the letter from the Provincial Court, now under consideration, a further explanation is entered into; under the same distinct terms in respect to themselves, as Justices of the Peace; and a discussion of the power of the Superior Court to cause the recording of the principle they had adopted - until certain points were referred for the consideration of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, with whom it would remain to enact a Regulation providing for such exigency.

This brings the point, however improperly on the part of the Southern Provincial Court, to some sort of issue; and it appears probable that the distinction between the duty of the Justice of

of the Peace so constituted under the Crown — and the duty of the local Magistrate so constituted under the Government — being fully explained will do away the error that has crept into the proceedings of the Provincial Court in the Southern Division.

It is evident from their letter of 15th Instant, now before the Court, that they have not distinguished between the duties of the Justice of Peace and of the local Magistrate — and it appears that their consideration of the two designations giving one and the same authority, has led them into error of judgment, tho' not into error of act.

The Justice of the Peace is not a part of the constituted authorities under the Company's 20th December 1806.

Government. He is an Officer of the English law — and his authority in the Regulations of this Government is expressly called in aid of the Provincial Judicature in those cases only where the Provincial Judicature can have no jurisdiction, viz^t over British Subjects.

The local Magistrate is a part of the constituted authorities under the Company's Government. He is the particular Officer of what may be called the Provincial law — and his authority in the Regulations of this Government is expressly for those purposes over which the Justice of the Peace aforenoted can have no jurisdiction, viz^t the Natives of the Provinces, not British Subjects.

If the same person be a Provincial

Provincial Magistrate and a Justice of the Peace, and have occasion to quell a riot in which British subjects and Natives, not British subjects, be jointly engaged in any of the Provinces, his commitment of the whole, or of part thereof, must be by the different forms, prescribed by the different authorities, from which he derives his power — and he must commit for trial by the several Courts having jurisdiction over the different offenders.

The Justice of the Peace upon application by a party aggrieved upon oath — of an actual misdemeanour committed, is bound to act. An indictation in acting — or in refusing to act, if not the subject of any criminal prosecution in the Superior Courts of the King — may be a proper subject subject of animadversion by the King at home, or by the Governor in Council here — who posess the power of directing any one to be struck out of the Commission of the Peace.

Having thus distinguished, the Court proceed to apply the foregoing to the points referred.

The Judges in their answer to the application of the Officer Commanding admit the truth of his representation — but "at the "same time feel the delicacy of "taking at the height of the "Festival, an interference, which by "the industrious malevolence of "the disaffected might be construed "into a determined violation of "their Customs and religion." Does not this argue that they thought they could interfere, but would not? And again — "In a few days "the religious part of this festival "will cease — and admit of the "Magistrate's exercising the powers "especially entrusted to him by "the Right Honble the Governor "in Council". Does this mean power under the Regulations, or power independant of the Regulations? The former would be clear: — the latter subject to much discussion.

It surely is not, by what is shewn in the above extracts, meant by the Judges to palliate an omission of duty — if within their power: but if such was not their feeling, why did they not say, — It was not their duty as Justices of the Peace? For of the special jurisdiction of the local Magistrate they appear well acquainted — they therefore must know they were not local Magistrates by any existing Regulation, and in such capacity they were not applied to by the Commanding Officer.

Where was the necessity of their recommendatory letter to the local Magistrate, who as such independently of his authority as Justice of the Peace — possessed under the Regulations what was superior to their authority — in the charge assigned to him; and in which he had acted, so far as the Court are informed, with propriety.

The preceding as relating partially to the different authorities, is in answer to the three first Paragraphs of the letter letter from the Provincial Court of 10th December. "The Court now considers it necessary to canvass the insuperable objections urged in the sixth Paragraph.

It has been stated that as Justices of the Peace they have jurisdiction only over British Subjects. — Their commitment then of British Subjects could never interfere with the duties of the Provincial Court of Appeal — for the commitment must be for trial before the King's Court — any part of the present discussion can have no relation to the Court of Appeal — and as the Regulations do not give the Provincial Judges the Power of Local Magistracy — it does not appear that any act of theirs as Justices of the Peace can be considered as necessarily Dec.r 20.th 1806.

"to create in the uninformed mind of the Native an appearance of "partiality and of prejudgment "of his fate."

In the seventh paragraph of this letter it is stated that the Provincial Court under date 22d. Nov.r 1803 — in reply to a request of the Judge on Circuit to investigate and report on the testimony of witnesses produced by a Prisoner convicted — stated that independantly of the particular irregularity of the reference it proposed an interference with the duty of the Magistrate incompatible with the fundamental principle of those Regulations to which he had sworn to act.

Here are two questions —

1st. As a Justice of the Peace had Sir. Rowley the then Judge on Circuit authority as such to Canadian people not British subjects? If the previous reasoning, or a portion of the Court be correct – and the Supreme Court at Montreal while holds that it is correct – he had not authority. 2d. That he by any regulation of the Government then existing, vested with the power of a Gillah or local Magistrate! Certainly he was not – hence was his interference incompatible with the fundimental principle of the Regulations; and hence was the misapplication of that letter by the Provincial Court to the case in point – for the parties complained against by Colonel Campbell not being British subjects in the remotest degree were not subject to the authority of Justices of the Peace – and the Provincial Judges not having the power of the Gillah Magistrate could not interfere of themselves solely, in any respect to their prejudice.

The eighth paragraph of the Provincial Courts letter seems conclusive. It states "that the "application of the Commanding "Officer was not one of ordinary "judicature, nor sufficiently "specific to justify a Law pro"ceeding." – Was not this enough for the Judges, even if endowed with both powers aforenoted – to have refused acting, without bringing the case into discussion; – would any emergency the Commanding Officer could state, as this was stated – justify their action? Surely not – If their power were deficient,

Oct. 25th 1806

The Acting Register lays
before the Court the following

From the Regr to the Provincial Court in the Southern Division — With extracts from the Courts Proceedings on a reference from the Judge & Magistrate of Ramnad respecting the Furnishing English translates of documents prepared for the Court of Circuit

(Here enter No. 5)

Court in the Southern Division,
consider the matter thereof as strictly
appertaining to the peculiar duty
of the Judge on Circuit, on whose
the administration of criminal justice
are to be corrected, and any con=
the part of the Judges remaining
at the Sudder Station "for the per=
"formance of the duties of the
"Court of Appeal", appears to them
entirely unauthorised by the Regulations.

The Court are, however,
willing to believe that the

Provincial Court attaching consid= =erable importance to the question
in their zeal for the public service lost sight of the irregula= =rity originating with the Magis=
of Ramnad; and were induced
to give the subject that consi= =deration, which in their opin=
it seemed to demand.

Under this impression, a
caution at the same time to rem=
with the least possible delay an
doubt, tending even remotely
obstruct the operations of the Cou
of Circuit, they have resolved to g
rather than delay the considera=
by returning the papers for re= =mission thro' the regular channel.

In the view taken by the Court of the important functions

of the Judges on Circuit, they are
progress of the Circuit, is indis= =pensably necessary; and the Court wholly concur in opinion with the Provincial Court that the attention
of the Magistrates to this point of
duty is of primary importance.
instance been marked by the censure
of the Court; and the consequent un= =prepared state of the documents
required to enable the Judge to
commence the Sessions — admitted
to be a sufficient reason for quitting
the station without delivering the Jail.

The substantial utility of
hitherto obtained, of furnishing
