From the 3 Judge in the Southern Division Reporting the Close of his Circuit for the 2 Sessions A.D. 1807 (Vide infra No 59)

Ordered that extract of these proceedings be sent to the Third Judge, by precept requiring conformity to it's exigence.

To the 3 Judge in the Southern Div^n (Vide infra No 61)

The Register laid before the Court the following letter from the Judge on Circuit in the Southern Division.

From the Judge on Circuit in the Southern Div^n Reports that the Magistrate of Salem has been directed to take Charge of a female prisoner Collee Committed for Murder — who has been found to be insane — instructed the Magistrate of the Gaol of Salem to take charge of a female, [illegible] pauper [illegible] who had been committed for (Vide infra No 63)

The Registrar laid before the Court the following letter from the Third Judge in the Southern Division — submitting copy of a letter from the late Magistrate of Manargoody, with petition of Villoopanien Seagarajen, a prisoner confined under sentence to the jail in that Zilla.

From the 3 Judge in the Southern Divn Submits copy of letter from the Magistrate of Manargoody — enclosing a petition from Seagara a person to be released from the jail at that place — (Here enter No. 79.)

The prayer of the petitioner for release from confinement, and is recommended by the late Magistrate on the ground of the alledged illegality of the proceedings against the petitioner.

The Third Judge of Circuit having on the records of the Court documents affording ample testimony of the legality of all proceedings held against the convict Villoopanien Seagarajen, might have corrected the error into which the Magistrate had fallen, but should have doubted the propriety of receiving and forwarding a petition, containing, under refer=ence to those proceedings, matter so little founded in fact, and which came before him with no other recommendation to support it, than an unfounded assumption on the part of the Magistrate - in a point, respecting which it could not under any circumstances be within his function to decide.

The Court therefore direct that the Magistrate's letter and enclosure be returned to the Third Judge, with extract of these pro=ceedings for his information.

If the Court of Circuit should, on visiting the jail in which the Prisoner Villeoparian Seagrenajien is confined, see just reason to consider that relief may be extended to the Prisoner, the Court will, on receiving a regular representation of such particular circumstances in his case, proceed to give full consider-

Letter from the Third Judge of dated

From the 3 Judge dated 18th Kellins in the Southern Division – Submits that the Magistrate of Manargody in forwarding (Execution № 146) Bellos parian Teagarajens petition did not question the legality of the proceedings of the Court of Circuit, but the final sentence — of the convict Villoparian Teag arajen, it appeared to the Court that the prayer of his petition for release, had been recommended b the Third Judge solely on the grou of the alledged illegality of the proceedings against him — upon respecting which, it was obvious it could not any circumstances be within the functions of the Magistrate to decide

The Court therefore held that the Third Judge should have corrected the error, into which the Magistrate had fallen — whet in relation to the proceedings of the Tribunal at Adalist, or of the Court of Circuit; and that he should have hesitated to submit a petitio containing matter wholly unfound so ill supported.

The Third Judge now repeat in reference to the extract from the Court of proceedings of the 15th March, on this letter of the 19th February, regarding the convict in question, that the discovery made by the Magistrate of Manargody of "the illegality of the proceedings "against this man" — had exclusive reference to the final sentence.

So far as regards the final sentence it would appear therefore that the assertion of the Magistrate is admitted by the Third Judge: — who, in forwarding the petition, adopted his suggestions, that the imprisonment adjudged was illegal.

As the Magistrate's letter does not contain any reasoning whatever, explanatory of the grounds on which he conceives the sentence not to have been legal: —

And as the Third Judge appears to have received the pra

The Judge reads up the documents received from the Magistrate in case No. 1 on the calendar for the Gaol of Galway — submitting to the consideration of the Court his doubt of the competency of the Court of Circuit to take cognizance of the case, as the crime charged against the prisoner appears to him to be an offence against the State.

The

21st June 1808.

The Registrar laid before the Court a return from the Third Judge of Circuit in the Southern Division, to the Court's precept of the 3d Instno.

From the 3d Judge in the Southern Division states that in forwarding Villoopanien Teagey's own petition, he did not intend to question the legality of the Sentence —

(Here enter No. 193)

The Third Judge declares "his "opinion that a Sentence for theft, "involving the possibility of confine= "=ment for life, appears to violate the "letter of the now existing Regulations
"XV A.D. 1803, which provides, (Clause fifth
"Section II, that no Sentence of discretion "=ary punishment shall exceed or "equal the specific punishments
"=scribed by the Mahomedan Law, "unless such enhanced or equal punish= "=ment shall have been expressly ordained "by some Regulation — and (Clause VII
"prescribing the same rule for the guid= "=ance of the Foujdarry Adawlut."

Altho' the Third Judge has omitted to apply his opinion on the construction of Clause 5th Section II Regulation XV 1803 to the case of Villoopanien Teagey, tried & this the very general terms in which his opinion is conveyed, would almost justify the belief that not any appli= =cation was intended: — yet as the clause in question, with the Third Judge's interpretation of it, has been introduced in his return to a precept requiring him to state in what consisted the illegality of the sentence passed on Villiapanica Teagaraja the Court can only consider his opinion as given in conformity to the exigency

And the Court have to observe that, whatever may be the intention of the clause quoted by the Third Judge

Date of sentence in case No 1. on the 2nd at the day of the date of the first Colombo common calendar 2nd Sept 1803; in sentence passed on the prisoner, Regulation XV. A.D. 1803, had not been 21st Feb 1804.

Date of Presidents transmitted by the Government to the Court of Judicature, that sentence could not possibly be guided by any of the provisions; and as the punishment Transmitting Regn XV. 1803, for the use of the Court in 25th Feb 1804. then adjudged appropriate, although it could not be determined under to what it awarded by Clause fifth of Section II refined to - to any relief under the circumstances of the case, it may be considered expedient to order to the prisoner, cannot in any shape be founded on such clause.

Should this be the case of the proceedings be sent for the First Judge's information dated 6th Instant

From the Judge on Circuit Southern Division requests instructions how to proceed in cases wherein the prosecutor fails to appear and information as to the authority of Magistrates to sentence persons to work on the public roads — (Persian No. 263)

The Judge on retiring from the proceedings of the Court of Circuit, between operation of procedure occasioned by the absence of the prosecutor of the Zilla of Tinnivelly — and request to be informed whether Magistrates are authorized to condemn persons convicted by them — to work upon the public roads

With respect to the method of proceeding on the case from whence the prosecutor is to appear at the time fixed for the trial of the accused —

Ordered that the Judge be directed to direct the prosecutor in such cases to be considered as the prosecutor and on the part of the Sirkar the Judge will at the same time enter upon the proceeding the reasons assigned for the non-performance of the condition of the recognizance, by which the Prosecutor had been bound over to appear; and, in the case may be, by precept command the Magistrate to levy the amount thereby forfeited to Government.

(Concerning the other point referred by the Judge, the Court have only to observe that the restrictions and limitations, under which Magistrates are empowered to punish offenders in complaint, or prosecutions determinable by them, are sufficiently well defined in Sections VIII and IX of Regulation VI A.D. 1802 - which do not under any circumstances permit the Magistrate to punish or fine the public courts. If the offence charged against the party be of a nature to require, in the punishment or prevention of them, the exercise of an authority not recognized in the Sections quoted, - if the crimes alledged have been attended with any aggravating circumstances, or committed by persons of notorious bad character - it becomes the duty of the Magistrate to commit them to take their trial before the Court of Circuit.

Ordered that a transcript of these proceedings be sent for the Judge's information.

The Registrar lay before the Court the following letter from the Court of Circuit in the Northern Division to the Court's precept requiring explanation of the grounds on which it had been considered necessary to detain the prisoner Coppen Nayak at present under confinement in the Jail of Guntoor subsequently to the acquittal of 16th August 1808.

of murder for which he had been tried

From the Court of Circuit - Centre Division - state the grounds on which Goparagah was detained in confinement after acquittal

(See ante № 270)

A copy of the warrant issued by the Court of Circuit in the 1st Sessions 1806 - in case № 5, on the Cuddapa Calendar, is sent up with the above return.

The Court had been called by the letter dated 20th June, received from the Magistrate in the Zilla of Cuddapa to ascribe the extravagant acts of Goparagah therein mentioned to despair occasioned by his protracted confinement; and it appeared to the Court that the Magistrate reported the case under a similar impression to that he had no reason to suppose the prisoner was or had been disordered in his mind.

From the copy of warrant now laid before them, the Court observe that it had been established to the satisfaction of the Judge, before whom the trial was held, - that the Prisoner was liable to fits of insanity - to which the Court must refer his late conduct, and see therefore the necessity of continuing the salutary restraint upon his person ordered by the Judge on Circuit by his warrant of 13th March, 1806.

The Court desired that the Judge on Circuit be called upon, at his ensuing visit to the Jail at Cuddapa, to August 16th 1808

to report upon the state of the Prisoner's mind, and the Judge was desired to instruct the Magistrate to treat him in such manner as is proper in such circumstances.

The Register laid before the Court the following letter from the Magistrate in the Zilla of Verdachellum dated 12th Ultimo.

From the Magistrate of Verdachellum - submits copies of warrants for the imprisonment of a convict under sentence which fix different periods for his release -

(See ante № 268)

The Magistrate submits copies of warrants issued by the Judge on Circuit - in case № 19 on his Calendar for the 2d Sessions of 1806 - and in case № 20 on his calendar for the 2d Session of 1807 - regarding the imprisonment of the convict Colanda - who, in the one case had been tried on a charge of robbery - and in the other, for breaking gaol.

The reference has arisen from the Magistrate's doubt as to the method of proceeding under the said warrants - seeing that owing to a contradiction in their terms, it is impossible to obey the latter, without infringing the former.

Ordered that the copies of warrants in question be transmitted to

The Magistrate solicits instruction for his guidance on prosecutions for "carnal connexion between a male "and female of different caste and of "different relative rank" — submitting his doubt of the propriety of treating such cases as criminal, & cognizable by the Court of Circuit.

The Court having duly weighed the subject referred, direct that the Magistrate be informed, that the cases in question — directed after consideration of Court — are cognizable in the eye of the laws, which regulate the proceedings & sentence of the criminal Courts, subjects of criminal cognizance: ~~and the~~ ~~case is only to be tried under the~~ ~~Evidence Act~~ ~~which, however, refers~~ ~~the criminality~~ of offenders, ~~to difference of cast~~ ~~between a civilized nation, is very~~ ~~separate favourable from the relative~~ ~~situation of the parties.~~ records delivered over on the institution of the Court at Combaconam by the late Principal Collector. — being the proceedings held before the Register Mr. Watts, on an information exhibited against Ammelle Unnoole and Sutchoo Sauntey, for stealing certain bonds & other articles.

And the Magistrate represents that the said Sutchoo Sauntey is still confined in his jail, under an order signed by the Principal Collector, sentencing him to receive 30 lashes and "be confined in irons, until he should "deliver up the bonds &c &c" — and he requests instructions for his guidance with respect to the Prisoner.

The Court having duly considered the subject of the above reference are of opinion that the whole proceedings held by the Collector or the Register, in the case, were illegal and unwarranted by the existing Regulations.

In the execution of their duties as Magistrates, they were to be guided by the Regulations enacted for the conduct of that office. Under those Regulations the complaint was not of a nature to be heard and finally determined upon by a

The Second Judge, who presided at the above trial, having in his letter of the 7th May, reported the grounds on which he had been led to suppose that a proclamation of general amnesty of acts of violence committed during former troubles had been issued by the Principal Collector on his first arrival in the Province of Canara; the measures he had taken to procure a copy of the Proclamation in question, and his intention to forward it for the information of the Court so soon as received: — the Court under date the 7th Ultimo, considered the further delivered by the Cazee and Coorzat and Mooftee, but resolved to defer passing the final sentence in the case, until the Judge of Circuit should have communicated the result of his application to the Magistrate of Canara.

The letter from the Second Judge, now laid before the Court, contain copies of the correspondence held with the Magistrate in Canara regarding the Amnesty said to have been published by the Principal Collector, and copies of proclamations addressed by that Officer to the

From the Secretary to Govt in the Jud.l Dept states the desire of Govt to receive advice of all orders regarding the removal of Convicts under sentence of Banishment from their Zillahs -

The Court direct that receipt of the above letter be respectfully acknowledged, with information that the orders contained shall be obeyed in all cases where the Zillahs Established may direct the removal of convicts under the heads of letters.

But as the Court are not aware of the cause which produced this order, they think it necessary to state their opinion that military guards are not requisite to escort convicts sentenced to banishment from their respective Zillahs; the Court conceiving that the establishment of Peons attached to each Magistrate will supply the number required to convey prisoners from one Zillah to another in succession from one

The Court feel it necessary further to state that they have issued orders to each Zillah Magistrate requiring him to keep the convicts as they may arrive, to the next Zillah and so on successively till the prisoner is conveyed to the place prescribed in his sentence — considering that the aid of military escorts ought not to be called in for purposes of this nature.

From the Judge on Circuit in the Centre Div^n explains the mistake in his Warrant No 28. 2. Sessions 1807 —

The Judge states that the words "from the date hereof" were inserted by mistake in his Warrant dated the 11th July 1807, and that he conceives an amendment of the Warrant would be irregular —

The Court have read with great astonishment the return made by the 3rd Judge in the Centre Division to their Precept of the 16th August last — That Precept required an amendment by the Judge of his Warrant under date the 11th July 1807; and the explanation of the Judge with regard to the intention

2 November 1808.

of that Warrant justifies the amendment required.

The Judge in his informal return recommends that the convict should have the benefit of his error, because "it would be irregular to amend "the Warrant", because "the prisoner has "undergone the punishment of one "year reckoning from the day on which "the Warrant was dated", and because "the tenor of the Warrant has been already "complied with by the Magistrate".

The Court finds by the Warrant, dated the 9th Novr 1806, that the period of punishment therein awarded would not expire till Novr in the year 1812; the Court find by the return now before them that it was the Judge's intention to sentence the prisoner

Warrant, upon the preceding premises,

The Magistrate reports the escape of 23 convicts and prisoners from the jail in his Zillah, and the re-apprehension of 3 of the fugitives

On a consideration of the circumstances attending the escape of the convicts in question, as stated in the letter before them, the Court cannot but attribute a great degree of negligence and inattention in the Magistrate in the discharge of his duty; since it would have been impossible for so many persons to escape unobserved if common care had been given to the walls of the jail — which instruction was ordered to be given to the Magistrate by the circular order of the [illegible] of the weather.

From the Magistrate in the Zillah of North Malabar — States result of the inquiry into the Circumstances of the escape of certain convicts of whom 5 Sepoys in all have been re-apprehended —

The Magistrate states the result of the enquiry made by him into the circumstances of the escape of certain convicts from the Jail in his Zillah — from which it appears that a private Sepoy, named [illegible] of the 1st Batt. 17th Reg.t Native Infantry had aided and furnished the means to the prisoners to effect their escape.

The Magistrate supposes that military guards are included in the provisions of Section XXIII. Regulation VIII. A. D. 1802, and that the aforesaid Sepoy ought therefore to be committed for trial before the Court of Circuit.

The Court however are of opinion that the provisions of the
